Lagunitas Move Starts To Keep School Head Frye

Board Member Hopes Decision For Ouster Can Be Reversed

A movement to retain Lagunitas School Supt. Clifford L. Frye, who was ousted by 3-to-2 vote Tuesday night, was under way today in San Geronimo Valley. A minority member of the school board rose to Frye's defense today.

"We hope that with further study, the decision (to oust Frye) can be reversed," said board member Leslie Stone, an architect. Stone and John Nielsen voted to retain the 55-year-old superintendent, who has been on the job for five years. But the three-man majority, headed by Chairman Glen E. Twitchell, voted not to rehire Frye, whose contract expires next June.

"Teachers and parents here are almost unanimous in their acclaim for Mr. Frye," Stone declared. "We are pleased with how the school district is being run, and there is no 'dirty linen' and no wrongdoing of any kind that we know of."

Stone said Tuesday night's school board meeting was packed with teachers and parents, who demanded that specific reasons be given for Frye's ouster.

"Mr Frye himself wanted the reasons discussed in public, but the majority would not do so," Stone declared.

Stone contended there is no real reason for dismissing Frye.

CHAIRMAN AGREES

Chairman Twitchell agreed that the audience Tuesday night was predominantly in favor of the superintendent, but said he doubts that those present were representative of the entire valley.

"If 80 or 90 per cent of the community is behind Mr. Frye, then certainly there is a possibility that the decision would be reversed," said Twitchell. "But I feel that possibility is remote."

Mrs. George England, who operates Forest Knolls Food Market with her husband, said almost everyone entering the store today "was upset" about the ousting of Frye.

RECALL SUGGESTED

She said one person suggested recalling the majority of the school board members, but the general concensus seemed to be in favor of circulating a petition to support Frye and try to get a reversal of the board's 3-to-2 decision.

"All of this is still in the talking stage, and I haven't seen any petition yet," Mrs. England added.

Mrs. Georgette Vilas, one of three board members who voted to terminate Frye's contract, said she can see no reason for changing her decision. She insisted there are good reasons for the decision to dismiss the superintendent, but said she prefers not to discuss them publicly.

FULL HOUSE FOR CHRISTMAS

The Axe quadruplets of Lima, Ohio, appear all set for their first Christmas. Sprawled out beneath the stocking-draped mantel are (from left) Rita, Susan, Julie and Anne. Their parents, Phillip, 28, and Barbara, 26, also have three other preschoolers at home. Each of the quads, born nine months ago, has two teeth now and weighs 16 pounds or almost. (AP Wirephoto)

Novato May Kill Police Chief Exam

2 Council Members For Plan

The Novato City Council today appeared about ready to dump the results of a statewide examination for police chief in favor of hiring an officer who did not pass the exam.

The council went into another of a long series of closed meetings an appointment of police chief during the noon hour. At least two members were believed ready to throw out results of the examination and offer the job to Sgt. Robert Di Grazia, acting chief since resignation of Roy McLaren.

FIVE NAMES

Di Grazia was one of more than three score applicants who took a written examination given for the city by Griffenhagen-Kroeger Inc. of San Francisco, municipal government consultants. City Administrator J. Julien Baget, in response to a question, today said Di Grazia was not certified as passing the examination.

Five names were submitted to the council by Griffenhagen-Kroeger as recommended for the post vacated when McLaren left Oct. 31 to take an $11,000-per-year job in Washington, D.C. None of the five is a Novato resident.

Although discussions of hiring a new chief have been conducted behind closed doors, two councilmen are known to favor appointment of a Novato resident.

THROUGH RANKS

Councilman Everett Pozzi from the first urged that a successor to McLaren be chosen from among Novato's policemen.

"I have always favored raising a man through the ranks," he said today. "I was surprised to find out that I had some support from other members of the council."

Mayor M. E. (Babe) Silva, then a councilman, opposed the statewide examination in 1960 which resulted in McLaren's appointment. He said at that time that the exam was so stringent it ruled out local applicants, and he felt the job "should have gone to a Novato resident."

After the council last month interviewed the five men recommended by Griffenhagen-Kroeger, Mayor Silva said "none of them seemed any better than our acting chief."

Councilman John Angeloni said after a closed council session Tuesday night: "We are not satisfied with the five men recommended by Griffenhagen-Kroeger. We are going to explore it further . . . The job is still wide open."

Councilman Lucile Cannon said, "I wish I dared to say how I stand, but I have been criticized so much by the council for talking that this time I am not going to commit myself beforehand."

Mother Of Four Dies After Crash

Mrs. Joanne Patricia Stanley, 34-year-old Forest Knolls mother of four, died late yesterday in Marin General Hospital of injuries suffered in a traffic accident Tuesday.

Her death brought the traffic fatality toil in Marin County this year to 32, more than in any full year in history. The previous record was 31 such deaths in 1946, the California Highway Patrol said.

Mrs. Stanley, wife of Donald Allan Stanley, 38, book editor for the San Francisco Examiner, suffered head injuries when the small foreign station wagon he was driving plowed into a halted U.S. Government station wagon in heavy fog on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard seven miles west of Fairfax.

She died at 7:15 p.m. yesterday following brain surgery.

Stanley, who suffered a left leg fracture, a dislocated hip, and multiple cuts and bruises, was in "fair and improved" condition at the hospital today.

Driver of the government vehicle, Howard Payne Kermickel, 54, of Davis, told highway patrolmen the lights on his station wagon went out. He pulled to a halt and walked back to the nearest curve to warn motorists. He said he was unable to attract Stanley's attention, the patrol reported.

Patrolmen said a check of Kermickel's vehicle affirmed the lighting system had failed. They were continuing their investigation today.

Mrs. Stanley, co-ordinator of a teachers' aide program at Lagunitas School in San Geronimo Valley, was a substitute librarian at both Forest Knolls and Woodacre libraries, a member of the Woodacre Improvement Club and the Lagunitas School Parent-Teacher Assn.

She was a native of Chicago, Ill.

She and her husband came to Marin County two years ago from Germany, where he worked on the Stars and Stripes, U.S. Army newspaper.

Their residence in Forest Knolls is on Montezuma Avenue.

Survivors, besides the husband are two daughters, Darcy, 13, and Kim, 10; two sons, Michael, 8, and Peter, 6; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Smith of Chicago; a sister, Mrs. Shirley Mellecker, and a brother, Ronald Smith, both of Illinois.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Harry M. Williams Mortuary in San Rafael.

Gentle Rain Breaks Marin Cold Spell

A gently rain that began at dusk yesterday fell like a warm balm on Marin County, ending 10 days of frigid, sometimes freezing weather.

By the time the rain let up early today, a total of .88 of an inch had fallen at Lagunitas Lake. Drizzles continued through the morning.

The Weather Bureau said there would be occasional showers through tomorrow and the thermometer would climb higher.

Despite the rain, some areas were still chilly this morning. Woodacre reported a low of 37 degrees, San Rafael a low of 39.

San Rafael had .59 of an inch of rain as of 8 a.m. today. This gave a total to date of 10.49 compared with last year's total at this time of 16.62. Seasonal average for Dec. 19 is 10.17 in San Rafael.

There was a report phoned in to the Marin County Sheriff's Office soon after the storm began last night that snow was falling on Puerto Suello Hill. But there was no snow reports in the county, and if snow fell on Puerto Suello, it did not last long.

Other rainfall readings in the county as of 8 a.m. today were:

Ross, .79; Chevy Chase, .76; Phoenix Lake, .75; Kent and Bon Tempe lakes, .7; Woodacre, .65; Fairfax, .6; Mill Valley, .58; San Anselmo, .57; Tamalpais Valley, .55; Point Reyes Station, .51; Novato and Inverness, .45; Nicasio Lake, .43; Sausalito, .34 and Belvedere, .33.

Labor Hits Rumford Law Repeal

The Marin County Labor Council put itself on record last night in opposition to an initiative which would repeal the Rumford Fair Housing Law.

The council directed that letters be written to the Marin County Real Estate Board and California Real Estate Assn. stating the position of Marin organized labor against the initiative campaign. Also, said secretary Hugh Cassidy, all union members in Marin County will be requested not to sign initiative petitions.

The council voted to join the Marin Co-ordinating Council for Racial Equality and appointed Phil Ruby of Teachers Union 1077 as its representative.

Ruby was also appointed to a scholarship committee to start preliminary work on the annual scholarship awarded to the labor council to a graduating high school senior. Named to that committee with him were John Irwin of Teachers Union 1077 and James Issel of Machinists Union 238.

Charles Weers of Novato, a member of Sheet Metal Workers Union 75, was elected vice president to succeed James Smith.

Road Contract Let

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A 2.32 million dollar contract for 4.8 miles of four-lane freeway on U.S. 101 from north of San Miguel to just north of Camp Roberts was awarded yesterday to McNamara Corp., Ltd. in Burlingame.

Temporary Structures To Be Put On Campus

Two temporary structures will be put on the College of Marin campus to house programs formerly conducted in the gymnasium which burned to the ground Monday, three members of the Junior College District board decided yesterday.

A butler building (prefabricated) to house physical education classes and a portable classroom for coaches' offices could be in place behind the burned gym by Feb. 1, architect Corwin Booth told the board.

The three trustees took no action at the study session but put the matter over until 5:30 p.m. today when board members Elizabeth M. Deedy and Joseph Gargiulo were expected to be present at a special meeting in Harlan Hall.

The portable classroom, which would cost about $11,000, could be in place by the first week in January. The butler building, costing about $25,000 for 2,400 square feet of space, could be constructed by Feb. 1, Booth said.

Harry J. Pieper, head of the physical education department, said the butler building would take care of all physical education classes except volleyball and badminton. These classes would have to be held somewhere off campus.

He suggested that bowling, ice skating and roller skating classes at local alleys and rinks be placed in the physical education program to replace the volleyball and badminton classes.

Also included in the architect's plans was the addition of toilet facilities and showers to the field house which was left standing behind the burned gym.

College maintenance workers were to examine the boiler of the burned gym today to see if it could be used as a heating plant for the field house and two temporary facilities. The boiler is encased in a cement-lined room.

Grades for physical education courses this semester will be determined on work done in classes before the fire, President Stephen E. Epler told the board.

Sheep Rustling Evidence Found

Evidence of possible sheep rustling in West Marin was reported yesterday by Deputy Sheriff William S. Christensen.

The skin, head and entrails of a lamb were discovered near the county road equipment yard west of Inverness by Stanley Koschetz of Olema, a maintenance man at the yard.

Christensen said the butchering and skinning had been "skillfully accomplished." He said the lamb was a Suffolk.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson signed into law today a bill extending the government program of retraining for jobless workers. He called it a major step forward, but added "we have a long way to go."

The Women Told Luke Of Jesus

(EDITOR'S NOTE—Only in Luke can the story of the origins of Christ's coming be found. Here, in the fourth of five Christmas articles, is how this Greek physician went about gathering the story of Jesus' birth.)

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
A.P. Religious Writer

Of the women, little was known. And he wondered. In the depths of women, behind the watchfulness of their eyes and the stillness of their lips, lay untold secrets. Luke would seek to learn them.

Heretofore, none of the disciples had sought to do so. It was a notable omission.

To Luke, a cultured, urbane Greek physician, there could not be sufficient understanding of Jesus' birth without inquiring into what the women knew of it. In every design, women fill a part.

Luke purposed to discover it.

He strode along the road. From time to time, trains of traders passed, wool buyers returning to Tyre or Sidon with packed mules; camels laden with wine casks from Cyprus.

By foot it was about a three-day journey from Caesarea to Jerusalem, but it had taken him five. Several times he had stopped to treat the afflicted.

As he later stated in his introduction, he set down information "delivered to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses." It included material about Christ's coming unrevealed in any other document.

Of particular note was what

Arson Ruled Out As Cause Of Gym Fire

Arson was ruled out today as the cause of the $300,000 fire which destroyed the College of Marin gymnasium Monday.

Kentfield Fire Chief Kenneth Kamp, after conferring with Inspector Guido Battaglia of the sheriff's office, said a portable electric floor heater had been left on in the building.

Basketball uniforms had been hung over the heater to dry. Apparently one of the uniforms dropped on the heater and caught fire, Kamp said.

"We are completely satisfied that the fire was accidental," the chief declared.

Kamps said that a man seen running from the building shortly before the flames burst out at 3:24 p.m. could have been running to report the fire.

The Kentfield Fire Department was swamped with calls reporting the fire and did not record names.

Russ Loft 16th 1963 Satellite

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Soviet Union today launched a new space satellite—its 16th of the year—to carry out research for future manned travel in the cosmos.

The satellite, Cosmos 24, was unmanned. The official Soviet news agency Tass said it was functioning normally and information received from it was being processed at the main computing center.

Tass said the cosmos satellite carried a radio transmitter, a radio system for telemetering information on the functioning of instruments and various scientific research equipment.

The satellite completed its first orbit in 90.5 minutes. Its orbit brought it within 131 miles of the earth at its closest point. The farthest point of the orbit was 253 miles.

The 30-inch telescope brought the moon about 1,000 times closer. (AP Wirephoto)

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

African Students Pushed Into Snow

MOSCOW (UPI) — Soviet miltiamen guarding the Ghanaian Embassy today shoved several African students back into the snow when they tried to force their way into the building.

A group of 30 Ghanaian students had tried to enter the embassy in search of more information on the death of fellow-tsudent Edmund Asare-Addo, whose body was found frozen in the snow alongside a railroad track north of Moscow last Thursday.

His death had caused a demonstration in Red Square yesterday, in which an estimated 400 Ghanaian students paraded.

Last du Pont Brother Dies At 86

WILMINGTON, Del. (UPI) — Irenee du Pont, 86, last survivor of the three brothers who led the Dupont Co. to its preeminent position in the chemical industry, died at his home today.

du Pont

Du Pont had been ill for some time at his home at Granogue just outside Wilmington.

During du Pont's lifetime E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Co. became the world's largest diversified chemical firms. At the time du Pont, great grandson of the founder of the company, began working for the firm it was a relatively small Delaware concern engaged exclusively in the manufacture of explosives.

Du Pont retired as honorary chairman of the board early in 1959 and was succeeded by his son, Irenee du Pont Jr.

The elder du Pont had been president of the firm, following his two older brothers.

Cohen Gems Sold

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Flashy jewels and trinkets once owned by ex-mobster Mickey Cohen—and appraised at about $50,000—sold yesterday for about $19,000. The 43 pieces of jewelry were sold by the International Revenue Service, which had seized the baubles to help pay off almost $375,000 in back taxes.

3 Rocket Shots

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE (AP)—The Air Force set a new one-day launch record with its firing yesterday of three Atlas rockets in little more than 12 hours. All were successful, industry sources said.

Picassos Burn

DETROIT (UPI) — Thirty-five Picasso paintings went up in flames last night in a downtown fire which caused an estimated $500,000 damage.

The paintings by the famed 82-year-old Spanish artist, Pablo Picasso, were being shown in the Arwin Gallery.

Lester B. Arwin, owner of the Arwin Gallery, said the ruined Picassos included "Man in Front of a Cabin," valued at $36,000, and "Picador," valued at $9,500.

G.E. Settles

NEW YORK (AP)—The General Electric Co. has agreed to nearly 11 million dollars in out-of-court settlements of 32 suits filed as a result of the 1961 antitrust decisions.

U.S. Dist. Judge Sylvester Ryan approved the settlements yesterday.

The largest, almost six million dollars was made to Consolidated Edison Co. of New York.

Rights Law Signed

DOVER, Del. (AP)—Gov. Elbert N. Carvel of Delaware signed into law a public accommodations bill yesterday aimed at curbing racial discrimination.

The bill makes it illegal to refuse service to anyone in public accommodations because of race, creed, color or national origin.

Current State Text Proposal Called Most Costly So Far

PASADENA (AP) — A current textbook proposal before the State Board of Education is the most costly in California history, says a board spokesman.

The proposal, advanced yesterday by the curriculum commission, envisions separate basic texts for fast, average and slow learners in seventh and eighth grade mathematics. There would also be two basic texts for fourth grade history and geography.

They would cost more than 14 million dollars.

The commission approved a method of distinguishing between the three levels of learning ability. Average learners would be those who place between the 10th and 80th percentile on a standardized test. Those who score below the 65th percentile or above the 25th percentile would not be included in the fast and slow categories.

The State Department of Education estimated first-year requirements in the mathematics books at more than 10 million copies. Almost 2.5 million history and geography books would also be needed, the department said.

The board of education will hold public hearings Jan. 9 and 10 in San Francisco when adoption of the recommendations will be considered.

Reporting to the curriculum commission on the work of an advisory committee on foreign languages, Mrs. Julia Gonsalves said her committee is developing lesson plans in Spanish to ready teachers for 1965, when all sixth, seventh and eighth graders in the public schools must begin studying a foreign language.

The mandatory program, enacted by the State Legislature in 1961, would involve about a million students, the board spokesman said.

Mrs. Gonsalves explained that the lesson plan was aimed primarily at the teacher who is not competent in a foreign language.

Two commissioners questioned whether it would be educationally sound to have teachers instructing students in a foreign language when they can't speak it themselves.

H. M. McPherson of Napa said "it seems to me that this is a farce, a stop-gap, make-do program" unless there are competent teachers.

Richard P. Feynman, a professor of theoretical physics at the California Institute of Technology, said "this may be worse than nothing." He said a teacher who is not fluent in the language being taught might be ridiculed by students who are native students of that language.

The commission also recommended dictionaries for use in the first through eighth grades.

BERLIN CROSSING POINTS ENLARGED

Holes In Wall To Help Speed Passage Of Visitors On Way To See Relatives

BERLIN (AP)—East German border guards completed the enlargement of two crossing points in the Berlin wall today to speed the passage of thousands of West Berliners who began crossing over for Christmas reunions with relatives.

The flow of West Berliners into the Communist sector of the city began today.

Communist officials appeared to be doing their utmost to avoid traffice jams at the five crossing points in the wall, which was built 28 months ago to prevent the escape of East Germans and to isolate West Berlin.

The Reds felt large lineups at the wall might lead to trouble.

The East Germans knocked an additional door-sized hole into the concrete barrier at the pedestrian crossing at Oberbaumbruecke. They also enlarged the vehicle crossing in the Neukoelln district by removing several concrete slabs.

The Communist regime took the unusual step of assigning mostly officers to the work. Apparently they can be more relied upon not to make a break for the West.

Under the agreement between the East German regime and the West Berlin administration of Mayor Willy Brandt, an estimated 800,000 West Berliners will be allowed to visit close relatives on the other side of the wall on one-day passes until Jan. 5.

The Communists have refused to admit most West Berliners to East Berlin since the wall was started in August, 1961. The restriction has not applied to Allied military personnel and non-German civilians.

Long lines of West Berliners waited outside the 12 offices where applications for crossing permits were received. Some complained angrily when the offices closed at 6 p.m. with applicants still waiting in the cold.

Extra police were called to disperse those who refused to leave.

About 24,000 applications were turned over to East German authorities for their approval Wednesday. Under the arrangement, visitors were required to lease East Berlin by midnight.

Broad Study Of Shipyards Under Way

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon has launched a broad-scale study of shipyard requirements that almost certainly will lead to the closing of some of the 11 major Navy-owned yards.

Pentagon announcement last night of the study order by Secretary of Defense Robert C. McNamara came in the turbulent wake of his announcement last week that 26 military bases and facilities would be shut down or curtailed in operation.

That aroused a clamor in Congress which appears likely to be intensified by the new action.

Even before the new survey board was formed McNamara had said flatly that "there are excess facilities in our naval shipyards today."

The Pentagon statement said that at direction of McNamara, Secretary of the Navy Paul H. Nitze has set up a board composed of representatives of both McNamara's office and the Navy Department "to undertake a comprehensive study of the nation's shipyard capacity and requirements."

One small yard at San Diego already has been tabbed for closing, among the 26 installations listed by McNamara last Thursday.

There had been speculation that some big government yards — among them those at Philadelphia, San Francisco and Boston — would be included in that list. They were not, and McNamara sidestepped questions regarding the three yards.

Police Say Boy Admits Blaze

BRENTWOOD (AP)—Police said yesterday an 18-year-old boy has confessed setting the fire that destroyed Liberty Union High School last March 23.

Police Chief Robert Abney said the youth, Bernardo Seto, is a former student at the Brentwood School and is now serving a term at Preston for attempted burglary.

Abney said Soto signed a full confession and will be charged with arson.

School officials estimated the loss from the fire at $634,000.

Census For Britain

LONDON (UPI) — The government announced Monday Britain will take its second population census in five years in 1966. Health Minister Antony Barber told the House of Commons the count would be a 10 per cent sample census rather than a house-by-house counting.

Wife Gets Divorce From Kurt Adler

RENO (AP)—Kurt Herbert Adler, manager of the San Francisco Opera Co. was divorced yesterday after 23 years of marriage.

Diantha Warfel Adler charged the musician with extreme cruelty throughout their wedded life. They have two children, Kristin Diantha and Ronald Huntington.

Manslaughter Charged In Car Death Of Mayor

FRESNO (AP)—Two counts of misdemeanor manslaughter were filed yesterday against Lloyd S. Weber, the manager of the Fresno County and city Chamber of Commerce.

He was the driver of a station wagon which crashed with a large truck Dec. 5, killing Fresno Mayor Arthur Selland and the president of the chamber, Herbert Ferguson. They were both passengers in the Weber vehicle.

The charges were filed by Capt. H. L. Harrison, commander of the Fresno unit of the State Highway Patrol.

Dist. Atty. E. Clark Savory earlier declined to prosecute Weber, even though the Highway Patrol recommended it.

Mrs. Kennedy Getting Award For Alliance

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP)—The president of the San Antonio Mexican Chamber of Commerce, Perry Salinas, said yesterday that Mrs. John F. Kennedy will receive the chamber's third John F. Kennedy Alliance for Progress Award.

Mrs. Kennedy's diligence in promoting goodwill and understanding between the United States and Latin-American countries was cited by Salinas as the reason for giving her the award, which she will receive early next year.

WHAT ALL CHILDREN ARE DOING

There's nothing else quite like telling Santa Claus. And there's no Santa Claus quite so real as one who arrives by reindeer—as this one did at Sabella's in Alto for the fourth renewal of Sabella's in Marin Christmas party Monday night. Telling Santa is Mitchell Ongaro of 38 Manor View, Fairfax, one of more than 500 who turned out for the party.

Tree For Hospital

The junior class at Redwood High School will donate a Christmas tree tomorrow to Marin General Hospital. The tree was decorated with homemade ornaments by the students for hall judging at the school, according to class president Richard Noyes.

Recruits No More

Robert H. Weis, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. Weiss of 400 Nova Albion Way, San Rafael, and Stephen D. Parsons, ward of Mrs. Stanley H. Payton of 1649 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, have completed Navy recruit training at the San Diego Naval Training Center.

On Attack Carrier

Gary L. Hagemann, Navy radioman seaman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Hagemann of 92 Laura Lane, Fairfax, is participating in a coordinated U. S. and Republic of China amphibious exercise titled "Big Dipper" while serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier Kitty Hawk along the southern coast of Taiwan.

United States farmers paid about 300 million dollars in sales taxes in 1962.

Income Could Outweigh Expenses For College

Income could outweigh expenses for the College of Marin's building program by as much as two million dollars, according to a projection of the junior college district's assessed valuation.

The projection of money to be collected through 1972 from the 35-cent tax override approved in June, 1962, was made by the office of the Marin County superintendent of schools for the college's board of trustees.

Based on an annual increase within the district's present boundaries of 10 per cent in assessed valuation, the district will collect $16,040,000 from the tax authorized by voters for 10 years.

Ten per cent is the most "realistic" projection of increases in assessed valuation, according to Dr. R. S. Kupfer, in charge of research and finance for the county schools office.

The college board has approved a proposed capital improvement program, submitted by the college's architects in March, 1962. The program listed costs for the buildings at $11,305,000.

However, since that time, the cost of the program has increased about 20 per cent, according to college president Stephen E. Epler. This would bring the total to $14,505,000.

Reasons for the increase, according to Epler, are rising construction costs, altered plans, and a desire by the board for a higher standard of construction than first submitted by the architectural firm of Falk and Booth.

Epler said the firm had never designed a junior college before, although it has designed high schools. "Junior college construction is on a higher standard than high school construction," Epler said.

The total amount of money to be collected by 1972 could be increased by $308,388 if seven school districts in the county, now outside Marin Junior College District, should join the district.

In addition, the college's building fund could become $100,000 richer if the college construction bill is passed by Congress. Epler has estimated that the college could receive this amount in matching funds from the federal government.

Now! For the man who pays himself— A new Retirement Plan from Bank of America

By acting immediately, the self-employed business or professional man can start his own retirement plan and get special tax benefits for 1963!

Bank of America has a new plan to help the self-employed business or professional man to enjoy financial security after retirement.

The name of this new plan: Bank of America Trustplan for Self-Employed Retirement Programs. Its purpose: to help you build a tax-sheltered trust fund for use as a personal retirement program. Its scope: follows the limits of the Keogh-Smathers Act, which permits annual contributions to retirement funds up to $2,500. Its advantages: our Trustplan makes full use of the favorable tax benefits enacted by the Keogh-Smathers Act—and offers the many investment advantages that Bank of America provides to all trusts.

Working with your attorney you can start a Trustplan retirement fund for yourself and your employes. But to enjoy the special tax benefits for 1963, your Trustplan must begin before January 1, 1964.

A free informative booklet is available at any branch of Bank of America or any Bank of America Trust Officer will be happy to explain our new Trustplan to you. Why not call the District Trust office listed below?

member of the council, refused to say anything.

Mrs. Cannon has stayed away from any of the executive sessions on police chief appointment, causing speculation that the other four council members may be deadlocked, making hers the decisive vote.

Di Grazia was named acting chief on McLaren's departure. He was recommended for that appointment by McLaren.

Di Grazia was one of the first five officers hired when Novato formed its own police department in December, 1960, after nearly a year of contracting with the county sheriff's office for police services. He had served two years as a sheriff's deputy.

He was later the first to be made sergeant in the new department. His salary of $583 per month as sergeant was raised to $675 during service as acting chief, to revert to the former figure if and when he returned to sergeant's status.

The city council, in calling for recruitment of a new chief, set the pay range at $675 to $820 per month. Griffenhagen-Kroeger subsequently reported the range was too low to attract qualified men. The council then agreed the new chief would be paid more than the minimum of $675.

McLaren was hired at $642 per month in 1960 and had been increased to $781 by the time he resigned.

Di Grazia had talked of leaving police work to become associated with his brother in a delicatessen establishment in the Northgate Shopping Center in San Rafael.

He said yesterday, however, that he would seriously consider the police chief's job if it were offered him.

Water Districts Meeting On Pact

Managers and engineers of Marin Municipal Water District, North Marin County Water District and Sonoma County Water District will meet in Santa Rosa tomorrow afternoon to work out details of a water agreement between the two counties.

"We hope to finish the first draft of the agreement to present to all three boards," said Jerome B. Gilbert, North Marin District manager.

Sausalito Needs More Police Reserves

More reserve police officers are being sought by the Sausalito Police Department, Sgt. David Cooper, acting chief, said today.

Applications may be obtained at the police station in the city hall at any time. Applicants must be over 21 years of age and at least five feet, nine inches tall.

Christmas Songs

Caroling and playing or Christmas songs will take place tomorrow throughout the halls and campus at Tamalpais High School. The tradition has been followed for the past seven years. Choir and band members take part.

Jewelry Missing

San Rafael police today were investigating the report of Roy Conn, 1437 Lincoln Avenue, that $765 worth of jewelry was taken from his home yesterday. Conn told officers there was no sign of a break-in.

Luke First Disciple To Hear Women's View

he ascertained from women, to whom most scholars in those days paid scant heed.

Luke, a Gentile heathen converted to Christianity, had become an associate of the missionary Paul, who had been arrested for sedition in 58 A.D., and was in Roman custody in Caesarea. He was kept in jail there for two years.

Luke learned that the Apostle John had sold his property in Galilee and purchased a house on Mount Olivet for Mary, the mother of Jesus.

There, Luke must have found her and talked with her, for the account he gives could have come from no other source.

It was a deeply personal account, how the angel had come to her, frightening her. "Hail, O favored one, the Lord is with you." She had been just a girl then, a promised bride, deeply devout, and afraid. "The power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born will be . . . the son of God."

This, and much else, Luke learned . . . of Mary's distraught visit to her aunt, Elizabeth, who offered reassurance, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb."

It was the aged Anna, Luke learned, who stirred such agitation at the temple when the child, Jesus, was brought there by Jewish custom, for his dedication.

It may be that Luke gave such attentive ear to women, partly because his friend and teacher, Paul, customarily advised them to keep silent. Doing otherwise, Luke elicited their help and brought unknown details to light.

Through his inquiries in Jerusalem and Bethlehem, coupled with what he had heard in Galilee, Luke also determined the historical circumstances that had caused Joseph to take his bride away from home in her pregnancy.

"In those days," Luke learned, "a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled. This was the first enrollment when Quirinius was governor of Syria. And all went to be enrolled, each to his own city.

"And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and lineage of David, to be enrolled with Mary, his betrothed, who was with child.

"And while they were there, the time came for her to be delivered. And she gave birth to her first-born son and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn."

Luke stood inside the limestone grotto, which inhabitants thereabouts had pointed out to him as the place. There, still, he could see the hollowed-out rock food trough for oxen where the child had lain.

Things had been difficult then, as they still were for believers. Luke worked with caution in his interviews at the crowded Bethlehem inn and elsewhere, lest undue suspicion be aroused against him.

Luke did not finish his writing until later, probably in Rome following the execution of Paul, after 65 or 70 A.D. Luke himself, tradition says, lived on until he was 74, and died a bachelor in Thebes.

Only Luke records the parables of the good Samaritan, the prodigal son, the lost sheep. He saw the human side of Jesus, his responsiveness not only to men but to women, customarily relegated to a second place in those times.

One of the most stirring scenes was gleaned from those shepherds he had befriended. They told him how they had trembled as the sky brightened at midnight and rang with a glad proclamation:

"Be not afraid: for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ, the Lord."

Sanitation District Approves Fund Transfer

The San Rafael Sanitation District board met briefly today to approve a transfer of funds to pay for a $15,000 variable speed drive pump for the main treatment plant.

Chairman Fred E. Jensen, John F. McInnis, and Byron W. Leydecker zipped through the agenda in about 20 minutes.

Only other item was to pay monthly bills totaling $3,165.

Prisoner Granted Hearing

William J. Ford, San Quentin condemned murderer who complained last year he wasn't getting enough carbon paper to write up his court appeals, was granted a hearing on a new complaint today.

Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. of Marin Superior Court ordered Warden Fred R. Dickson to appear in court Jan. 6 at 2 p.m. to explain why Ford has to pay a 10 per cent assessment on the legal stationery he purchases at the prison.

In a writ of habeas corpus, Ford complained he is "forced against his will" to pay the assessment, which goes to the Inmate Welfare Fund.

Sentenced for the murder of a San Luis Obispo County deputy sheriff, Ford has been on Death Row since Dec. 15, 1961. During that time he has bought $400 worth of legal paper and has paid $40 to the welfare fund. Because he is sentenced to death, Ford alleged, he won't receive any "welfare benefits."

Ford also complained in his lengthy writ that he was refused consultation in private with his attorney, Arnold H. Gold of Beverly Hills, and that any notes taken at such conferences were censored by prison officials.

Judge Sims refused to hear the charges, saying Ford's appeal to the State Supreme Court was not endangered by any "intrusion" in attorney conferences any notes, "if made, were not unreasonably subjected to inspection."

It's All Right If You Like It

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — A heart attack led to a new hobby and eventually a batch of blue ribbons for 59-year-old Otis Livingston, a Louisville account and loan company treasurer.

While recovering, Livingston watched his wife work on a needlepoint chair cover.

Since he took up the needle and began making handbags and chair covers, Livingston has won 14 blue ribbons at Kentucky and Texas state fairs plus 11 others for second and third prizes.

Marijuana Case Dropped By Judge

A charge of marijuana possession against a Hayward businessman was dismissed yesterday in Marin Municipal Court by Judge Joseph G. Wilson.

Charles Ray Phillips, 30, coowner of a Hayward optical supply firm, was arrested Nov. 11 after three marijuana seeds were found in his car, parked in the visitors' lot at San Quentin Prison while he and friends attended a prison boxing match.

Prison officials searched Phillips' car, reporting a tip that he was planning to smuggle marijuana to prisoners.

Judge Wilson ruled the seeds were insufficient evidence because three other persons were riding in the car with Phillips and it was impossible to determine who was responsible for the seeds. The tiny seeds, found on the car floor, were of the type found mixed with tobacco in marijuana cigarettes.

Phillips denied knowing anything about the seeds.

Little Twigs Bent Early

PIKEVILLE, Ky. (AP)—It hardly would be a surprise if twins Ned T. and Harry Lee Bentley grow up with an interest in politics.

Born a week before the 1963 election, they were named for Kentucky's governor-elect Edward T. (Ned) Breathitt Jr. and his lieutenant governor, Harry Lee Waterfield.

The twins were delivered by Dr. Roy Sanders who was elected a state representative.

More Taxes Pile Up On Smoking

CHICAGO (AP) — Smokers in 15 states will have to cough up more change to cover new, higher pre-pack cigarette taxes.

Commerce Clearing House in a review of 1963 state cigarette tax activity says 13 states now levy an 8-cent per pack rate, tops in the nation.

Only in Colorado, North Carolina and Oregon do cigarette smokers puff away free from state taxes.

OBITUARIES

Gioacchino Pisani, 74, Rosary Set

Rosary for Gioacchino (Jack) Pisani, 74-year-old San Rafael resident and longtime executive manager of the Pacific Opera in San Francisco, will be recited at 8 p.m. today at the Chapel of Carew and English, 350 Masonic Avenue, San Francisco.

Requiem High Mass will be at Sts. Peter and Paul's Church, Filbert near Stockton Street, San Francisco, at 10 a.m. tomorrow. Burial wil be in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma.

Pisani, a resident of 40 Bret Harte Road the past four years, died in a San Francisco hospital Tuesday after a heart attack. He had driven from home to his firm, Pisani Printing Co., San Francisco, and was stricken soon after.

A native of Falermo, Italy, he came to California in 1907 and entered the printing business 41 years ago. His firm's first publication was Gagliardia, an Italian language magazine. Later he published programs for the San Francisco Opera and Symphony and concert series.

He was a close friend of Gaetano Meralo, opera company founder who died in 1953, and had minor singing roles in various performances.

A member of the Sons of Italy, the Italian-American Society, and the Leonardo da Vinci Society, he also was active many years with the Pacific Opera.

Pisani was a member of the St. Rafael's Catholic Parish in San Rafael.

Surviving are two sons, Rev. Frank Pisani of the Virginia Theological Seminary in Arlington, and Richard Pisani, with the printing firm; three sisters, Rev. Mother Superior Anna Pisani of Italy, Mrs. Caroline Quartararo of San Francisco, and Mrs. Conceta Cenni, treasurer of the printing firm; and two grandchildren.

Sickness Cancels Library Meeting

Sausalito Library trustees did not meet last night because of illness of Mrs. Cynthia B. Willcox, librarian, but set a meeting for 9 a.m. Saturday.

At that time, according to Mrs. James J. Carroll, acting president, the board will discuss the possibility of requesting funds through the public library development act. The Sausalito Library, as a member of the North Bay Cooperative System, may be eligible for some of the $850,000 appropriated by the state legislature under the act.

Big Cargo Movement Set For Pacific Coast

LONG BEACH (UPI) — Port authorities today announced plans for one of the largest cargo movements ever to be made on the Pacific Coast.

Three super ore carriers will load 142,000 tons of iron ore this Saturday through Monday bound for Japan at the port's new 6.5-million-dollars bulkloader, which will fill the ships at the rate of 3,200 tons an hour.

The first degree in journalism issued in the U.S. was given by Cornell University in 1876.

JOHN KURISKO

John L. Kurisko, 54, a Fairfax mason, died yesterday at a San Francisco hospital after a long illness.

He had been self-employed in masonry work, mainly in Marin, for many years. A veteran of World War II, he had lived 15 years in Sausalito and, for the past year, at 171 Lansdale Avenue, Fairfax.

Kurisko is urvived by his wife, Cecile; his mother, Mrs. Anna Kurisko of Lancaster, N.H.; a son, Richard Kurisko, and a daughter, Rita Cloutier, both of New Hampshire; a sister, Mrs. Margaret Howland of New Hamshire, and a brother Joseph P. Kurisko of Fairfax. Also surviving him are three grandchildren.

He was a native of Maine.

A mass will be celebrated tomorrow at 11 a.m. at St Rita's Catholic Church in Fairfax. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. today at Russell and Gooch Mortuary, Mil Valley. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno, at 1 p.m. tomorrow.

TIBURON BOUNDARY MEETING TONIGHT

Special Supervisor Session Will Also Go Into Coyote Creek Flood Control

The Marin County Board of Supervisors will hold a special meeting at 7 p.m. today at the Civic Center to consider boundaries for the proposed City of Tiburon and right of way for the proposed Coyote Creek flood control project.

The Tiburon hearing is expected to be short and mainly a formality. Supervisor Peter H. Behr promised to try to extend the time for filing protests against formation of a city if the protests reached one-third of the assessed land value of the city area by Monday. The total was only about 16 per cent, however.

Therefore, the supervisors are expected to put further consideration of individual cases over until next month, while maps are prepared to show the board what property owners want to be left out of the city.

The Coyote Creek question is expected to be more of a debate. The project, to be financed by the Army Corps of Engineers, is expected to cost about $900,000 and is designed to control flood problems on the lower part of the creek.

Widening and access roads in the area will require purchase of land along both sides in many areas, along with removal of five houses and many back yards and trees.

The hearing is to consider protests of property owners. Conceivably, a large enough protest could kill the project, but it would have to come from throughout Flood Control Zone 3, which includes most of the streams emptying into the north end of Richardson Bay.

Much of the land involved is far removed from the project site, and objections sufficient to kill the project are not expected.

Coast Guard Signup Interviews Slated

Coast Guard Recruiter Martin Von Rotz will be at 819 A Street, San Rafael, Wednesdays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. to interview men 17 to 26 years of age today.

Seven vacancies will be open next month, Von Rotz said.

Waldo Grade Lane Opened

The fourth southbound traffic lane on the Waldo Grade between Spencer Avenue and Marin City has been opened, Capt. Theodore F. Parnow of the California Highway Patrol announced today.

Parnow said the striping of the fourth lane was completed this week. A smoother surface will be laid when the weather warms up, he said.

Parnow requested that motorists let buses and trucks use the fourth lane, closest to the west edge of the highway. He also asked that motorists permit heavier vehicles to merge into the three lanes of traffic from Spencer Avenue to the Golden Gate Bridge.

Parnow said the additional uphill lane "should materially speed up the traffic."

Weeds "collect their tax" by robbing crop plants of nutrients, moisture and light.

Senate Rejects Two Slashes In Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate beat back today two attempts to reduce the $3,299,500,000 foreign aid money bill, apparently heeding President Lyndon B. Johnson's plea against further cuts in funds "needed for our own security and well being."

It rejected 55 to 28 an amendment by Sen. Wayne Morse, (D-Ore.), to reduce funds for supporting economic assistance to defense pact allies from 380 million dollars to the 300 million dollars voted by the House.

It next defeated 53 to 34 an amendment by Sen. Allen J. Ellender, (D-La.), to cut these funds from 380 to 350 million dollars. Supporting assistance is used to aid the economies of nations on the borders of the Sino-Soviet bloc to enable them to maintain larger military forces than their own resources will allow.

On the Morse amendment the party breakdown was 39 Democrats and 16 Republicans opposed, 18 Democrats and 10 Republicans in favor.

Morse contended "hundreds of millions of dollars" are being wasted on such assistance to Formosa, South Korea and ther countries. He said the military forces of most of them could be "licked by 10 Boy Scout troops" and their real defenses rest with U.S. military troops.

Sen. John O. Pastore, (D-R.I.), floor manager for the bill, argued that the funds enable countries on the periphery of communism to provide soldiers who, should the program be eliminated, would have to be replaced by Americans.

The More amendment was the first to come up as the Senate reached the showdown stage on the badly battered bill.

Children Will Dance To Christmas Carols

Children from pre-school age through teens will dance to Christmas carol music Saturday from 10 a.m. to noon at Henry C. Hall School in Larkspur.

The occasion will be an open house held by the Larkspur-Corte Madera Dance Cooperative and Ross Valley Dance Cooperative. Parents of the children and all others interested are invited to attend, said Mrs. Harry L. Roth of Larkspur, president of Marin Dance Cooperatives.

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP)—Police guarded Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman and other high officials today as the government continued rounding up persons suspected of involvement in an alleged Indonesian plot to sabotage vital installations in Malaysia.

Santa To Visit At Novato High

You're never too old —or yes, all the Virginias at Novato High School, there is a Santa Claus.

That grand old gent with the long white whiskers dressed in a red suit, who is the delight of small fry, will visit the Novato High School patio area during the lunch period tomorrow.

It is rumored that he will let the co-eds sit on his lap and tell him what they want for Christmas.

Directory Sale

The student body of Novato High School will sell directories with names, addresses and phone numbers of all students at the high school tomorrow.

Investors Delay Profit To Avoid Hiking Taxes

NEW YORK (UPI) — "There are good reasons for believing that many investors have delayed taking profits in order to avoid any increase in their family income tax liability for 1963," says Shearson, Hammill and Co.

"Thus," the advisory service says, "there is a fair chance that there will be substantial selling after the end of the year in those stocks which have shown substantial price appreciation in 1963. No one can say how important such selling is going to be, nor to what extent other investors are prepared to purchase the issues now scheduled for sale after New Year's day. In any case, we continue to believe that this is not a time for investors to commit all of their available cash and borrowing power to the stock market."

Standard and Poor's says that "Improved prospects for a tax cut reinforce views that 1964 will be even more prosperous than the current year, justifying a constructive but highly selective investment policy."

Kenneth Ward of Hayden, Stone and Co. says "The primary trend remains bullish and there does not appear to be any important top formation indicated on the general market. However, the speed and extent of the recovery which has carried the Dow-Jones Industrials to all-time highs suggests that more than the usual amount of care should now be exercised about initiating new purchases."

Moody's stock survey says that "While we hold to a generally favorable attitude, we feel that further erratic action may be in the offing."

MILLBRAE — The Peninsula Manufacturers Assn. has elected William C. Hern of Burlingame president.

The association is a nonprofit organization of about 250 diversified industries in San Mateo and Santa Clara Counties.

Final Dealings Active, But Stocks Sink

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market sank further to close with a loss today. Final dealings were active. The ticker tape was late.

Long-term profit-taking speeded up as the session neared its end and some sizable blocks were unloaded.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.6 million shares compared with 6.07 million yesterday.

Losses of key stocks went from fractions to a point or so.

Among high-flying issues, Xerox fell half a dozen points and its when-issued stock more than a point; Conrol Data lost about four, and U.S. Smelting around two.

Chrysler sliper more than a point and its when-issued stock was a fractional loser. Other leading motor issues also lost fractions.

Steels declined softly.

Airlines were soft, Pan American and American Airlines each losing a point.

IBM, which is acquiring Science Research Associates of Chicago, tacked on a point. High Voltage Engineering did a little better than that.

U.S. Steel was a fractional loser.

Utilities were fairly steady as small gains were posted for ATandT, Public Service and Gas and Commonwealth Edison. Oils unchanged to easy.

Prices were irregulary lower on the American Stock Exchange in moderate trading.

Corporate bonds were irregular; governments were higher.

Freightways Tops Last Year's Profits

MENLO PARK — Consolidated Freightways topped last year's after tax profits for the third consecutive month during November with earnings of $183,000, or 7 cents per share, it was announced today by the company's president, William G. White.

This compared with profits of $115,000, or 4 cents per share, in November, 1962. The company's year-to-date earnings through November total 3.4 million dollars, or $1.26 per share, compared to $3,715,000, or $1.38 per share, at the same point in 1962.

Blum's Candy Firm In City Purchased

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Blum's candy and bakery firm was purchased yesterday by Uncle John's Restaurants, Inc., of Santa Barbara from Rexall Drug and Chemical Co.

Blum's 1963 sales exceeded six million dollars. It operates retail stores in New York and California and 12 restaurants in California.

Luxury Hotel Plan

RENO (UPI)—Plans to build a sprawling six-million-dollar 11 story luxury hotel and gambling casino north of Reno have been announced by the Western States Building Corp. The structure will include a theater-restaurant, swimming pool, parking space for 175 cars indoors, a casino, banquet and convention facilities and a health club.

Hauling Is Changing

NEW YORK (UPI)—Long distance over-the-road truck hauling may be a doomed industry, according to President Gerald Eskow of Yale Express Systems. The combination of railway piggy-back for long-haul and trucks for hauls up to 400 miles is much cheaper and faster, he said, and is growing in use steadily.

Building Supplies Headquarters Is Getting Underway Next Month

New building for L. C. Smith Building Supplies, Inc., San Rafael, is expected to get under way between the middle of January and first of February. This will be located on property near the Marin Builders Exchange at Belvedere and Alto streets.

Smith took over 52,000 square feet from H. S. Meinberger and Son, who will erect for him a 20,000-square-foot structure designed by Edward Hageman and Associates, enabling him to conduct all his business under one roof. The building supplies firm now operates out of two buildings on Irwin Street and one on De Luca Place.

The building should be completed next July, just two years after the Marin Builders Exchange was completed. There will be plenty of offstreet parking.

Meinberger still retains about 51,000 square feet for other similar developments.

Meyer Bradley

TWO MARIN MEN receiving promotions at the Wells Fargo Bank head office in San Francisco are Robert Bradley of San Rafael and William H. Mayer of Mill Valley.

Bradley was advanced from assistant trust officer to trust officer. He has been with the bank since 1946 and an officer since 1954.

Mayer moved up from assistant investment officer to investment officer in the financial analysis department. He has 19 years banking experience with Wells Fargo.

W. STANLEY GEORGE of Lucas Valley has been appointed to the board of directors of the Havic Corp., San Rafael, as assistant secretary and assistant treasurer. He was formerly with the Columbia-Geneva Division of U. S. Steel as a market analyst, and with First of California Mortgage Co. as a commercial and industrial loan representative.

Havic Corp. is a real estate business management and holding corporation with properties in San Francisco and Marin. Harry A. Bell, president of the firm, has announced a 5 per cent stock dividend to stockholders of record on Jan. 21, payable on Feb. 15.

A GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY plaque was presented last week to Petaluma Cooperative Creamery. The presentation was made by International Paper Co., supplier of milk containers.

Petaluma Coop is the parent company of Lucas Valley Dairy in Marin.

THOMAS ROY SMITH of San Anselmo was awarded a life membership certificate in the American Society of Civil Engineers yesterday. Awards are presented annually to qualified members who have been active in the association for at least 25 years.

ATTORNEY Ben Barton Jr. of Terra Linda whose main office was in San Francisco for 11 years and part time in Terra Linda Shopping Center for a year, will now be in the Lincoln Executive Building at 1330 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael. He'll spend one day a week in San Francisco.

ALBERT TANNER of 32 Sirard Lane, San Rafael, will open Albert's Transmission Service at 81 Hoag Street, San Rafael, Jan. 1, offering free downtown pickup and delivery service. He was previously employed at Carlo's Transmission Service.

RICHARD W. MORGAN of San Anselmo has been appointed to a new post with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. as district construction superintendent for Berkeley, Oakland, Alameda and San Leandro. He was formerly supervising construction foreman and senior engineer for Marin County, and for the past several months has held a plant staff position at PT&T headquarters in San Francisco.

Television has given cardplaying a setback. From a total of 83 million decks of cards sold in 1950, U. S. sales have dropped to the 67-million level, in spite of a 23 per cent increase in population since then.

Ampex Corp Plans Plant

DENVER (AP) — Ampex Corp., manufacturers of electronic equipment and videotape, is acquiring 35 acres of land in Colorado Springs to build a new plant, Gov. John A. Love of Colorado announced Tuesday

Love said Ampex expects to build a plant of approximately 100,000 square feet, including a smaller plant upon which construction will be started early next year.

Ampex has its headquarters at Redwood City.

Volkswagen Sales Increase In U.S.

ENGLEWOOD CLIFFS, N.J. (UPI) — About one-fifth of total Volkswagen production, now running at the rate of more than 5,000 vehicles a day, is sold in the United States, the company reports.

Volkswagen said that 181,608 new passenger cars were sold in the U. S. during the first nine months this year, more than in any comparable period in the company's history.

MERCHANDISING DIRECTOR — William K. Warnock has been appointed director of merchandising and design for Koret of California, manufacturers of sportswear and knitwear. He is a vice president of the company and has been a director since 1955. Warnock lives with his wife and three children at 50 Berens Drive, Kentfield.

Dental Complex Due For Novato

A new dental and professional complex in Novato to be started in 1964 has been announced by Growth Properties, San Rafael.

Edgar T. Lindner, president of the property investment firm, said the project will comprise five buildings on approximately 1.75 acres between South Novato Boulevard and Diablo Avenue. One of the buildings, of about 3,000 square feet, he said, will house the first oral surgery hospital in the county. Three other buildings will be separate dental suites.

The fifth building will be a two-story professional building of about 8,000 square feet with office space available. Plans have not yet been completed for this building, Lindner said.

The project is expected to be launched early next year. It will be the fifth development by Growth Properties since it was organized in 1961.

Asphalt Priced

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ancient Greece prized asphalt so highly that wars were fought over possession of lands where it was found, say researchers at Allied Chemical's Barrett Division. History also records that Mark Anthony gave asphalt bearing land to Cleopatra as a gift fit for a queen.

Pipe Linings Urged

CHICAGO (UPI)—The use of fibreglass linings for tanks and pipes can save millions of dollars in losses due to corrosion every day, Jack W. Runkle of Owens-Corning Fibreglas Corp. believes. He estimates industry's national corrosion loss at 8-billion-dollars a year.

HISTORIC BELLS GET NEW SIGNS

California State Automobile Assn. crews erected three San Rafael Mission signs like this yesterday, fastening them to previously installed mission bell replicas at three main entrances to San Rafael. Shown above (left to right) are J. B. Rice, long-time Marin resident who serves as state president of C.S.A.A.; Fred Enemark, Marin County chairman of Redwood Empire Assn., and San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis. The C.S.A.A., the R.E.A. and the city of San Rafael have cooperated in joint efforts to mark the mission so visitors can find it readily.

Supervisors Vote To Form Marin Human Rights Unit

Speakers Of 7 Cities Back Plan; Steering Committee Appointed

The Marin County Board of Supervisors last night voted unanimously in favor of a Human Right Commission for Marin County and named four men to serve on a committee for its formation.

The action came after almost three hours of talk in which 32 persons, including representatives of seven of the county's 10 cities, spoke in favor of forming the commission.

Purpose of the commission is to "mobilize the leadership" of the county for study and action on problems encountered by racial minorities in Marin.

James Quiett of Marin City, a director of the Marin County Housing Authority, told supervisors the major problems for minorities are finding good jobs, adequate housing and education. These problems must be faced frankly and squarely, he said.

Dr. Daniel Collins of Mill Valley, a member of the State Board of Education; Dr. Theodore A. Gill, president of the San Francisco Theological Seminary, San Anselmo; Rabbi Morton Hoffman of Congregation Rodef Sholom, and Quiett were appointed to the steering committee.

One thing they must decide is how membership will be constituted, whether each city should have a representative on the commission, and whether members should be appointed by the board of supervisors or by officers of the commission itself.

Fred Gunsky of Mill Valley, education officer of the State Division of Fair Employment Practices, said the appointments should all be by the supervisors to give the commission more authority. Gunsky offered to work with the steering cmmittee in its deliberations.

Gunsky and Norman Goerlich of Mill Valley said that the commission will need some paid staff for clerical work at least, with perhaps some professional direction later. Goerlich, formerly of San Jose, based his recommendation on observation of a human rights commission there.

Appointment of all members by the supervisors was also the plea of San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis before he left to attend another meeting in San Francisco.

Proponents apparently agreed to this plan, but they were reluctant to ask for any paid staff.

After hearing the presentations, which often waxed eloquent, board members indicated their minds were already pretty well made up.

"None of this has changed my opinion," Supervisor George H. Ludy of Inverness declared. Supervisor William Gnoss of Novato also said he too was already in favor of the cmmission.

Representatives of all cities but Ross, Larkspur and San Anselmo were present to speak for the board action.

Rusk And Butler Agree On Accord

LONDON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Richard A. Butler agreed today on the need to continue Western probes for new agreements with the Soviet Union.

Rusk came to London for consultations with Butler following the North Atlantic Alliance ministerial meeting in Paris, which also proposed new but cautious steps to ease East-West tensions.

Rusk and Butler got through a dozen items on their agenda last night and today, informed sources said. They did not seek hard solutions but contented themselves with defining areas of agreement between London and Washington.

McNamara Arrives

SAIGON, Vietnam (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara arrived today for his second on-the-spot survey in three months of the war in South Vietnam.

Mayor Daveler Ends Meeting With Explosive Gavel Bang

With an explosive bang of the gavel, Mayor Lesly A. Daveler unexpectedly ended a Larkspur City Council meeting at 11:05 o'clock last night to halt a discussion of street abandonment.

"Gentlemen, the meeting is adjourned," proclaimed Daveler in tones he might use to announce that the enemy had just bombed Boardwalk 1. Councilmen sat in stunned silence.

"You have to hear a motion to adjourn," murmured City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper.

Daveler acknowledged no motion had been made, but added: "I get pretty tired of having a policy and having it pushed around for everyone all the time . . .

"Sorry, fellows. Other people walk out. I guess I can, too." (Vice Mayor Neil R. Brixon, absent last night, left the Nov. 7 meeting before adjournment, saying he had "had enough for one night.")

Daveler had urged the council to delay abandoning part of Eden Street, because the planning commission and park and recreation commission had not studied the matter. The abandonment was voted at an earlier council meeting.

Piper said he had mistakenly told the council the matter already had been referred to the commissions.

After considerarble discussion Councilman Vaughn Marker suggested that the commissions be told that because the street had to be abandoned by Feb. 1 or delayed a year for tax reasons, the council in this case would waive policy and stand by its earlier vote.

Here the gavel sounded its thunderclap.

RATS! THIS IS NO TIME TO BE TAKING A SWIM

A Mill Valley exterminator found out yesterday that Greenbrae is no place for swimming in December.

Ray Palmer, who works for Pro-Kill Pest Control answered a call to the home of Mrs. Wilfred C. Bullis at 320 Via Casitas at 9 a.m. yesterday. Mrs. Bullis reported trouble with rats.

On the ground level, Palmer looked up to the second floor for the Bullis apartment number, Apt. 107, but a railing was in the way so he could not see the numbers. He kept backing up and backing up and then—he fell into the pool, fully dressed and carrying his case of rat bait.

Palmer, who lives at 222 Sycamore Avenue, said "it was colder than Alaska."

Dam Break Probe Report In Month

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assembly investigators hope to complete their probe of the Baldwin Hills Reservoir dam collapse in a month.

Larry Margolis, assistant to Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles), told the Lower House Rules Committee yesterday that the 10-member special investigating committee will hold two hearings.

The Rules Committee allocated $5,000 for the investigation and approved Joe Fox, Los Angeles public relations man, as consultant to the special committee. His fee will be $1,000.

Dance Postponed

The Mill Valley teen club has postponed its dance which was to have been held tomorrow until Dec. 27 at 8:30 p.m. in the American Legion hall, Mill Valley, Hal Schwartz, teen club manager, reported.

Schools Allocated Special $524,661

The Marin County schools office has been allocated $524,661 for special purposes including training of physically and mentally retarded minors, the State Department of Education announced today.

The breakdown on the special apportionment is:

Program for physically handicapped minors, $156,058; pupil transportation, $148,277; program for mentally retarded minors, $63,223; driver training, $61,643.

Transportation of severely mentally retarded and physically handicapped minors, $41,943; special programs for mentally gifted children, $38,020, and program for severely mentally retarded minors, $15,497.

The funds were allocated for excess expenses incurred in these programs, the state reported.

The state pays $45 for each pupil trained in driving plus the replacement cost of automobiles and/or simulators. The allowance for gifted pupils amounts to $40 per participating pupil per year.

State reimbursements for pupil transportation are on a sliding scale, with the state paying 50 per cent of costs between two and eight cents, up to 90 per cent of costs in excess of 24 cents.

Bagley, Rival Assail And Cheer Unruh

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Faults and virtues of Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh were debated by two Assemblymen here yesterday.

William T. Bagley, (R-San Rafael) accused the Democratic leader of bossism. Nicholas C. Petris (D-Oakland) praised Unruh for his leadership.

"Unruh has become the money funnel in Sacramento," Bagley said. "The lobbyists are content to give him campaign money and let him parcel it out. He calls money the mother's milk of politics."

Petris commented it was healthier to have essential campaign funds come from elected officials serving as a central source rather than be parceled out directly by lobbyists.

Bagley accused Unruh of stacking the committees of the Assembly and of abuse of power.

"The charge of bossism is a phony," Petris said. "It is an emotional outcry of the Republicans trying to grab headlines becaues they are bankrupt of any real isue."

The assemblymen's audience was the Democratic Forum of San Francisco.

A. F. Hospital Reserve Cited

The 631st Air Force Reserve Hospital at Hamilton Air Force Base has received a unit citation for having 100 per cent membership in the Reserve Officers Assn. for six consecutive years.

Brig. Gen. Jack A. Gibbs, commander of the Sixth Air Force Region, presented the citation and praised the 77 officers of the reserve hospital for their patriotism and devotion to the Air Force.

Col. William R. Haas, commander of the 631st, accepted the citation at a luncheon ceremony at the HAFB Officers Club.

Attorney Paternity Charge Is Dropped

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Miss L. B. Floyd, 22, yesterday dropped a paternity suit against attorney Terry Francois, former president of the San Francisco chapter of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People.

Miss Floyd, who last July accused Francois of being the father of her 14-month-old daughter, withdrew the complaint just before a hearing was to start before Superior Judge Clarence W. Morris.

Francois had denied being involved.

I-J GETS ELECTRONIC LINOTYPE

This new high-speed line casting machine joined the Independent-Journal mechanical plant today to bring news more efficiently to readers. It can cast 15 lines per minute, whereas the previous "best" was about eight or nine lines per minute. The new electronically controlled machine is capable of operating on tape. Information such as stock market reports that come over tape can be fed into the machine, which then pours out lead type automatically.

Novatan Arrested On Check Charge

Gilbert D. White of 1356 Monte Marie Avenue, Novato, was arrested yesterday by Novato police on a felony bad check warrant from Woodland.

He was booked into Marin County jail, with bail set at $2,200.

He is the brother of Robert Lee White, 22, of 1356 Monte Marie Avenue, Novato, who is in Marin County jail on similar charges from Yolo, Madera and San Francisco counties, with bail set at $3,300.

2 Bottles Of Liquor Are Spirited Away

Two bottles of spirits seem to have been spirited away from the home of Helen Loudon, 69 Magee Avenue, Mill Valley, Miss Loudon reported to police yesterday.

She said she had ordered a bottle of vodka and one of creme de cacao delivered on Tuesday by a San Francisco store. Yesterday morning, on looking for the shipment, she found only an empty carton and wrappings in her garden.

Lack Of Quorum

There was no meeting held by the Strawberry Recreation District board last night because of lack of a quorum. The next meeting will be Jan. 15, said Patricia M. Gowen, secretary.

Bookmaking Case Dissmissal Is Asked

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety said today he will recommend dismissal of the bookmaking indictment against William P. Mountanos.

Mountanos, brother of Marin Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, was charged by the Marin County Grand Jury with four counts of accepting $10 horse race bets in the Patio Bar at 869 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

After a four-day trial in Marin Superior Court last week a jury failed to agree on a verdict.

Garety said today he will recommend to the court Monday that the case be dismissed.

"A review of all of the aspects of the case, including a discussion with several of the jurors, has convinced me that it is very unlikely that 12 people would agree upon a verdict in a second trial," the district attorney said. "Therefore, further expenditure of time and public funds is not warranted."

During eight and one-half hours of deliberation, the jurors took several polls, indicating nine to three for acquittal on three counts and nine to three for conviction on a fourth count.

Mountanos, 51, was arrested Aug. 21 by San Rafael police after allegedly accepting bets from an undercover agent for the State Alcoholic Beverage Control Department. The defense claimed he accepted a wager to be placed at the track as a favor to a friend, and was not making book on the races.

Last Rites Set For Cartoonist

REDONDO BEACH (AP)—Last rites of the Roman Catholic Church wil be celebrated Saturday for Bruce Russell, Pulitzer Prize-winning political cartonist for the Los Angeles Times.

Russell died yesterday at South Bay Hospital of a heart attack at the age of 60.

Russell won the Pulitzer Prize in 1946 for a cartoon drawn shortly after the end of World War II. Titled "Time To Bridge the Gulch," it showed a stern American eagle and a Russian bear facing each other from opposite sides of a chasm. The cartoon appeared before the term "cold war" was used by Sir Winston Churchill.

Russell's cartoons have been appearing in the Independent-Journal.

Two Dogs Die In Mill Valley From Strychnine Poisoning

Two dogs died in Mill Valley yesterday of what appeared to be strychnine poisoning, but a third was saved.

The three dogs were found in the area of Miller Avenue in the Locust District at about 9:20 a.m., acting strangely and one "frothing at the mouth."

Peter Knoedler reported to police he had seen a Doberman Pincher at 9:20 a.m. near 360 Miller Avenue "frothing at the mouth." A woman reported a sick dog near the Locust Bakery. Later, Arthur Silva, owner of the Locust Dry Cleaners at 369 Miller Avenue, said he had seen a Weimaraner under a car in the rear of his shop, apparently sick.

Alfred Dalgren, Marin County Humane Society deputy, found the Doberman dead on his arrival at the scene. The Weimaraner was dead when he reached a Mill Valley veterinary hospital.

A third dog, a Cocker owned by Mrs. Edward Lojko of 111 Reed Street, was still alive today at the veterinary hospital.

"It appears to be strychnine poisoning," said Charles Light, superintendent at the Humane Society.

Light said he did not have the names of the owners of the Doberman and Weimaraner, since the dogs' tags had been destroyed.

Too Much Mourning, Bavaria Inns Say

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—The Bavarian Innkeepers Assn. announced today it is planning a test suit for damages from the state, claiming authorities ordered too many days of mourning.

The association said many innkeepers had serious losses because of the no-dance, no-jukebox mourning periods proclaimed after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy and the death of Theodor Heuss, former West German president.

Stinson Meet Off

Lacking a quorum, there was no meeting of the Stinson Beach Fire Protection District commission last night, Mrs. Harriet M. Greene, assistant secretary, said today. The next meeting will be Jan. 22.

City Clerk, Treasurer Not To Be Civil Service

City clerk and treasurer positions in Larkspur will not be made subject to civil service examination when they become non-elective next April.

The Larkspur City Council so decided last night in a three-hour meeting on the city's personnel code and a proposed new personnel ordinance.

Voters two years ago approved proposals to make the two offices appointive on expiration of the incumbents' terms. These both expire next April. Isabelle Moore is incumbent clerk, and William C. Osborn, treasurer.

Councilman James J. Lienkaemper last night proposed the two positions be filled by competitive civil service examination. City Mgr. Ronald E. Piper, however, urged they be filled merely by appointment by the council.

The council majority agreed with the city manager.

The council reaffirmed its policy against discrimination because of political opinions or affiliations, race, or religious belief.

The final matter recommended by the personnel committee (Councilmen Lienkaemper and Neil R. Brixon) for council discussion was the annual salary review.

Mayor Lesly A. Daveler inquired, "Is there any reason to discuss No. 3?" Councilman Vaughn Marker spoke up immediately, and at length, saying he felt Larkspur salaries are too low.

Piper said the city managers committee of the Marin Council of Mayors would make a report in February on a survey of salaries throughout the county.

Marker and Councilman Robert J. Smith said that in addition to the countywide data they would like to have all possible information on local pay before budget time, so they could consider "adjusting" salaries. Lienkaemper said, "One vital factor is that we look at ourselves as taxpayers, too—and consider the hard-put property tax. The tax dollar is a little too hard to come by."

Under fringe benefits, Daveler asked, "Do we wish to continue granting an accumulation of 90 days sick leave or 12 days per year?" Most other Marin communities, he said, grant "an accumulation of 60 days or less."

"Leave it as it is," said Marker after discussion and the subject was dropped.

Daveler said Larkspur grants three weeks vacation after five years service, "ahead of most people." He recommended 10 years service before granting three weeks.

Piper said the present Larkspur provision "is the trend" and "if it were changed now it would have to be changed back later."

"I'm satisfied," said Smith and the provision was left as is.

Eight paid holidays (four for police and firemen) were left as is.

Then Daveler said the city hall office "has shorter hours (seven a day) than some other cities," and, "the business education and experience required are too modest."

Here Lienkaemper said, "I'd like to recommend adoption of the ordinance!"

Daveler sharply disagreed, saying there had been no comments from councilmen.

Ending the work session on personnel, the council voted to hold its next meeting Jan. 2.

Councilman Brixon was absent.

San Rafael High Graduates Open House Slated

San Rafael High School will hold "open house" on Dec. 30 for recent graduates who now attend colleges and universities.

Rebecca Creasman, director of the school's news bureau, announced that the open house will start at 7:30 p.m. at the school.

This will give juniors and seniors at the high school a chance to meet recent graduates who are now attending colleges, junior colleges and universities, Miss Creasman said. "Upper classmen will thus have an opportunity to receive first-hand information about various colleges from their contemporaries."

"If there are any recent graduates of San Rafael High now attending college who has not been contacted as yet, we urge them to call to say they will attend the open house," she added.

The first college of forestry in the U.S. was established by Cornell University.

Senior Citizen Bash Packs In Big Crowd

More than 300 Marin elderly persons were termed "an untapped pool of talent and experience" and promised a "pioneering new type" of low-cost housing at a pre-Christmas lunch at Sabella's Restaurant in Alto yesterday.

Speaker after speaker praised Manny Charnow of San Rafael, "Mr. Senior Citizen," for arranging the lunch, sponsored by Kaehler-Farrar Development, Inc.

About a score more than the 300 persons expected appeared at the event, filling most of the restaurant's dining space.

"You people represent an untapped pool of talent and experience. I hope we can get a program started to use this talent and experience in the coming year," said County Supervisor Peter H. Behr.

"We in San Rafael have recently started a study to approach senior citizen housing with a pioneering new idea that is different from anything else in the country. We hope it will provide good low-cost housing for persons no longer occupied with little children running around the house," said Mayor John F. McInnis.

Mayor Joseph E. Sheeks of Mill Valley suggested that the elderly, instead of being called senior citizens, be referred to as "citizens of wisdom." "You certainly show wisdom in living in Marin County," he said.

Mayor Arthur W. Smith of San Anselmo said, "I do belong to the Senior Citizens and I'm very proud of it. You are lucky to have Manny Charnow at the head of it."

Under prodding by master of ceremonies Hugh Turner manager of radio station KTIM, developers John J. Farrar and Reuben W. Kaehler spoke briefly, insisting "Manny Charnow did all the work" for the lunch.

Chairman William D. Fusselman of the County Board of Supervisors, Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker, attorney Samuel W. Gardiner, Richard Phoenix, coordinator of seniors' activities for the county, and Mayor M. E. Babe Silva of Novato spoke briefly.

Charnow handed out boxes of long-stemmed roses to Mrs. Fusselman, Mrs. Edward Halperin of Fairfax, and to his own wife, Celia. Halperin, who was ill and did not attend, provided distribution of boxes of candy to all. Homestead Savings and Loan Assn. of Sausalito distributed plastic hat coverings for use in rain.

After Fusselman spoke an unidentified woman said, "I hope next year you'll be our Santa Claus."

He insisted, "No, I'm reducing after having reached 306 pounds. When I came to Marin you could see my bones through my overcoat—so you can see what living here has done for me."

The lunch guests were taken to Alto in three buses, which later took them to San Rafael, where they saw the film "Ben Hur" at the Rafael Theater, also as guests of the developers.

Charnow, who spent two months preparing for the event and was sleepless last night with final details, was so busy assisting Turner at the microphone that he did not sit down to lunch.

Lobbyist Law Adequate, Say Lobbyists

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Spokesmen for California's lobbyists were on record today against proposals for new laws to police the more than 500 legislative advocates in Sacramento.

"The lobby act is adequate to do the job it is intended to do," Nils P. Ecklund Jr., vice president of Kaiser Industries, said.

He — and other lobbyists — testified yesterday before the Senate Committee on Legislative Representation. The one day hearing was called to find out if the 10-year-old lobby control law needs revision.

James D. Garibaldi, a Los Angeles lawyer who speaks for horse racing, billboard, liquor and other interests, said the legislature shouldn't be so concerned over how much lobbyists spend.

The present law requires lobbyists to register, report income over $100 and make a detailed accounting of how much they spend over $25. Violators can be fined or sent to jail, but critics complain the penalties are so stiff that nobody has been formally charged with breaking the law.

One lobbyist called the law "no good." Thomas F. Knight Jr. of the California Manufacturers Assn., said it implies legislators' votes can be bought.

Most Trams Out

SEATTLE, Wash. (UPI) — A survey shows that almost all major American cities are replacing their electric trolleys with motor coaches, according to the Seattle Transit System. The number of cities using them has dwindled from 48 in 1945 to 15, and 14 of those 15 cities plan to abandon them within the next year.

Could Have Quit Before Firing, Vehicle Aide Says

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A former Motor Vehicles Department official, dismissed in a probe of the agency, says he was given a chance to quit before he was fired

Albert J. Veglia, one-time registrar of motor vehicles, also said that his director, Tom Bright, was ordered to fire him. He testified at a civil service hearing yesterday.

He quoted Bright as saying: "My God, Al, have you called George Jackson (department personnel officer)? . . . I've got a terrible thing to tell you; we've got orders to fire you."

Frederick Cone, Veglia's attorney, later told reporters that the order to fire Veglia came from Charles A. O'Brien, chief deputy attorney general. The attorney general's office investigated alleged corruption in the department.

Veglia and William P. Scanland, former supervising special investigator, were fired and are fighting their dismissals on a series af civil service charges, including helping the career of Morris Genser, a former DMV official under indictment for soliciting payoffs from auto dealers. Genser was also fired.

Keep Marin Polls Open Hour Longer, Speaker Asks

A suggestion that election polls in Marin County remain open until 8 p.m. instead of closing at 7 o'clock was made last night before a group of Marin residents enrolled in a course on practical politics.

Elaine Guthrie, Marin precinct chairman for the Democratic Party, made the suggestion during her lecture on "The Political Precinct" at the Civic Center.

Her talk was the third in a series of eight in the course on practical politics, sponsored by the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, and Greater San Rafael Democratic Club.

Since Marin is a "commuting county," voters should be given an hour's more time to come home from work, eat supper and then go to the polls.

"If San Francisco polls can stay open to 8 p.m., we should certainly be able to stay open to 8," Mrs. Guthrie declared. "I feel this is something we should all work toward."

Home Run Swatter

First baseman Norm Siebern led the Kansas City Athletics in home runs with 16 and in runs batted in with 83 last season.

PLENTY OF KINFOLK

President Heading Home For Yule

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson is going home to a Texas ranch-style Christmas that features red velvet stockings hung from the mantle, a red-nosed deer and plenty of "kinfolk."

There had been much speculation that the Johnsons would spend their first Christmas as the First Family at the White House.

But the president told a news conference yesterday he would be at his Texas ranch to spend Christmas eve "with my sisters and my brother and my uncles and cousins and aunts."

And on Christmas Day, Johnson added, he wants to relax. He said he may go hunting while he's in Texas or spend a day in the hills "communing with myself."

The kinfolk who drop in on the Johnsons at Christmastime are "innumerable," one aide said, and it's bound to be something of a big reunion.

"If God is willing and Mrs. Johnson is willing," the president said, he will leave for Texas after lighting the national Christmas tree Sunday night in the park area behind the White House. No definite departure time was set.

By the time the president gets home, the traditional yule decorations will be up at his ranch. The Johnsons usually select one of their own homegrown cedar trees and gather up masses of the holly and mistletoe that grow on the 400-acre ranch.

The family traditionally exchanges gifts on Christmas morning and a great deal of secret shopping, by phone and with the aid of friends, has been under way in past days.

Four gay red velvet stockings marked "Lynda," "Lucy," "Mother" and "Father" hang from the mantel on Christmas for decorative purposes and are filled with Santas and Christmas baubles.

The Johnsons' Christmas dinner will be turkey and the trimmings as usual, prepared by ranch cook May Davis. The Johnson's longtime family cook, Zephyr Wright, prefers to stay home in Washington with her family.

Pagan Origins Traced

NEW YORK (UPI) — Some of the customs now associated with Christmas originated among pagan or non-Christian people. For example, Saturnalia, a Roman feast celebrated in mid-December, provided a model for many of the Christmas merry-making customs, the Encyclopedia Americana reports.

Marinwood Center Rules Discussed

Members of the Marinwood Community Services District board and recreation commission last night were hosts to representatives of local organizations in a tour of the New Marinwood Community Center and a discussion on rules for its use.

Tonight board members will gather at 8 o'clck. At the center to open bids on $100,000 in bonds to finance a new swimming pool.

Last night's informal session saw applications for use of the center from church groups, Marinwood Garden Club, Sunny Hills Guild, a dance studio and the Magic Circle children's theater.

Under rules recently adopted by the board, no fee will be charged public organizations as long as functions are not used to raise funds. Private groups will be charged according to the time of day and the parts of the building used.

Mrs. Kennedy, Children To Florida For Holidays

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The task of submerging her sorrow and providing a cheerful Christmas for her two children faces Mrs. John F. Kennedy.

Mrs. Kennedy took the children, Caroline, 6, and John Jr. 3, to the grave of their father in Arlington National Cemetery yesterday before they flew from Washington to Palm Beach for the holidays. It was John Jr.'s first known visit to the grave.

The holiday plans of Mrs. Kennedy and of the rest of the Kennedy family have not been announced, but it was expected that most would gather at the home of Joseph P. Kennedy, the late president's father.

The elder Kennedy, former ambassador to Great Britain, was driven to Palm Beach International Airport to greet his daughter-in-law and grandchildren.

Mrs. Kennedy, dressed in black, smiled at the small crowd that had gathered. She rode from the airport in the former ambassador's black limousine under heavy guard.

About 25 Secret Service men, more than often seen during visits of President Kennedy, were at the airport, in addition to a large contingent of state and city policemen.

Mrs. Kennedy and the children will stay through the New Year holiday at the oceanfront mansion loaned to them again this year by C. Michael Paul, a family friend.

Mill Valley Youth Center Fund Rises

The Mill Valley community and youth center fund has risen to $6,000, fund chairman Clay Underhill said today.

He said contributions are continuing to flow in "steadily" and added that persons wishing to contribute may send their checks or money to the community and youth center fund, city hall, Mill Valley. The goal is $25,000.

Safety Certificate For Greyhound Driver

Greyhound bus driver Gale C. Woodall of 6 Plaza Loma, Novato, won a safety award certificate for 1,500,000 miles of safe driving over a 20-year period, Western Greyhound Lines announced today.

Stan A. Ossman, director of safety for Greyhound's 11-state western division, said Woodall will get a certificate, uniform insignia and a clock for his achievement.

Santa's Helpers Have Busy Night

Santa's helpers had a busy two hours again last night at Independent-Journal telephones in San Rafael and Novato.

At times the lines into the San Rafael office were so jammed by calls from eager youngsters, a number of them chose to redial the Novato office which reported out of area messages from as far away as Belvedere and Tiburon.

One long distance call was received in San Rafael from Sacramento, in which six tiny voices took turns over a 15-minute period making known their Christmas hopes to old Nick.

The total number of calls received by both offices Tuesday night and last night was recorded at 4,162. Junior Chamber of Commerce members from Novato, San Rafael, Corte Madera and Larkspur acted as Santa's interviewers.

Youngsters may telephone Santa Claus in Mill Valley between 7 and 9 p.m. today by dialing the Tamalpais High School. The service is sponsored by the Mill Valley Junior Chamber of Commerce.

'DIAMOND JIM' BAILED

Pattillo Rents Sports Car —Then Is Victim Of Thief

It couldn't happen, but it did. James A. (Diamond Jim) Pattillo, 36, accused of grand theft from his former San Francisco employer, was a victim of thievery yesterday.

"I didn't believe this could happen to me," Pattillo told San Francisco Patrolman Albert Larrieu yesterday.

Pattillo, urged home by the Coast Guard two weeks ago to face the grand theft charge, was released on $14,300 bail from San Francisco jail yesterday. He soon leased a flashy car, a Corvette Sting Ray.

Yesterday afternoon Pattillo called police to report the car stolen from the 800 block of Pine Street while Pattillo was in a coffee shop. Witnesses said a man with a receding chin, in a brown jacket, got into the car and drove it away.

Pattillo is suspected of embezzling $50,000 or more from the George Windeler Co., a wine cask manufacturer.

Hey, Sheriff, Is That A Fair Thing?

MADISONVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Sheriff Al Lantrip used a bit of psychology in capturing four men who were gambling in the Nortonville School.

He drove to the school and knocked on the back door. Then he dashed around to the front and was waiting with open arms when the gamblers came running outside.

Hey, Wrong End!

WENDEN, Ariz. (UPI) — Darlene Anderson, who joined the peace corps and went to El Salvador, Central America, writes that she took along a diaper bag for native women to copy. They did but the native children are using the bags for hats, Darlene reports.

Three Hurt In County Auto Crashes

Three persons were injured in traffic accidents in Marin County investigated by the California Highway Patrol yesterday, as the rain storm slickened highway pavements.

Alice Dollar Hayden, 44, of Morrison Road, Ross, was treated for a bruised neck at Marin General Hospital after the car she was driving was hit from behind by another on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, 800 feet east of La Cuesta Drive, Greenbrae, at 4:55 p.m.

Geoffrey Francis Brown, 20, of 40 Eliseo Drive, Greenbrae, driver of the other car, was cited by the highway patrol for excessive speed. Brown suffered minor injuries and was to be treated by a private doctor. Both cars were westbound on Drake Boulevard.

Walter William Friday, 50, of Sebastopol, was taken to Marin General Hospital and then transferred to Hamilton Air Force Base Hospital where he was in good condition today with bruises and a cut eyebrow and nose.

Friday, according to the highway patrol, was driving north on Highway 101, one mile north of the Greenbrae overpass, when the lights of an oncoming car blinded him at 7 p.m.

Friday's car hit the divider strip of the highway and then veered across the northbound lane into a bank.

Lions Yule Party

A Christmas party, complete with gift exchange and Santa Claus, will be held by the Novato Lions Club for members, their wives and guests, at 5:30 p.m. Sunday at Cloud Five restaurant, Novato. Stuart McCullough and Richard Koenigsmark are co-chairmen.

Seniors Require Low-Cost Housing, Panelists Agree

Five Marin leaders, interested in the welfare of the elderly, agreed today that compulsory retirement at a specified age is "stupid," and that some type of low-rent housing is needed for the aged who cannot pay the high rentals and taxes in Marin.

Housing for the aged was discussed on Kitty Oppenheimer's radio KTIM "Marin Sounding Board." A taped recording of the one-hour discussion will be broadcast at 12:30 p.m. Sunday.

San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis, one of the panelists, emphasized that a city program for housing for the seniors is only in the early discussion stage, and nothing definite has been worked out.

The mayor has appointed a committee of three, headed by Councilman Charles W. Aby, to study what may be possible.

The mayor said he feels that senior citizens, who have lived here most of their lives paying taxes, should not be forced to move out of the county. "To price them out of the market is to me inhuman," said McInnis. "They have earned the right to live here and to retain their friends."

Other panelists were Vera Schultz, president of the Marin Senior Coordinating Council and former county supervisor: Richard Phenix, coordinator of the county community service project on senior citizens; Mrs. Ralph Stephenson, president of the Marin Senior Citizens Assn., and Donald Stutsman, acting executive director of the Marin Housing Authority.

Both Mrs. Schultz and Mayor McInnis pointed out that it would take state legislation to exempt older people from paying certain taxes, such as for schools.

Mrs. Schultz outlined these three channels that can be explored to provide housing for seniors:

A non-profit, tax-exempt organization such as the Senior Coordinating Council might provide housing; the Marin Housing Authority might be able to get federally aided housing, and the city government could enter the field.

The panelists agreed that older people should be allowed to live in environments to which they are accustomed, not packed off to an isolated area to live in "concentration camps."

The panelists emphasized that seniors who can and want to continue working should be allowed to do so. Public aided housing would be for those who are unable to work and need help.

200 Turn Out To See Bolinas School Show

Two hundred people attended the musical, "Scenes From Oklahoma," produced last night by fifth through eighth graders at Bolinas School.

The play, part of the after-school "enrichment program," is expected to be presented also at a school in the Larkspur School District, said director Richard Hassall.

Drunk Driving Fine

Louis Schacherl, 53, of 710 Penny Royal Lane, Terra Linda, was fined $176 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving Dec. 6 on Highway 101. Judge Harold J. Haley also put Schacherl on six months probation.

BEATS FIREMEN

Neighbor Save Store From Blaze

Joseph Russo is a man who believes in the good neighbor policy.

Robert Schilling, who operates Perry's Delicatessen No. 2 at 932 Grant Avenue in Novato, attests to that. "If it hadn't been for Joe," he said today, "this place would have been gone."

Russo operates Giuseppe's Pizza Parlor at 928 Grant, two doors from the delicatessen. Perry's closes up shop at 11 p.m.; Guiseppe's stays open until 2 a.m.

At 11:42 last night, with business slow, Russo stepped out for some night air. He saw flames in the rear of the delicatessen.

He ran back into the pizza parlor, phoned the alarm, grabbed two hand fire extinguishers, ran to the delicatessen, kicked the glass out of the front door—and by the time the Novato Fire Department arrived, had the flames under control.

Fire Chief George J. Cavallero said a cigarette thrown into a box of trash probably started the fire. The flames caught a bamboo curtain, which was blazing when Russo went into action.

Schilling estimated the damage, mostly from smoke, would be only "a couple of hundred dollars." Little of the stock was damaged, he said, although "a few cheeses got smoked up and will have to be thrown out."

171 Flee Pickwick Hotel Blaze

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Wind through an open window blew a curtain against a hot ash tray today on the second floor of the Pickwick Hotel at Fifth and Mission.

The blazing curtain started a fire that drew 115 firemen and routed 171 occupants of the eight-story hotel.

The fire was held to a minor blaze by quick action—from a fire department less than a block away.

Worthless Check Charge Dismissed

A chargeof passing a worthless $75 check was dismissed against Robert Walter Bruce, 32, of Novato, and his jury trial scheduled yesterday in Marin Municipal Court was canceled.

Judge Harold J. Haley dismissed the charge on request of the district attorney's office after Bruce made restitution of funds to cover the check, written to purchase a dining room set in Mill Valley.

Wife Of Gene Kelly Expects Child In July

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Dancer Actor Gene Kelly and his wife, Jeanne, are expecting their second child early in July.

Kelly, who made the announcment yesterday, also has a daughter, Kerry, by his first marriage to Betsy Blair.

COLD FREEZES A FIRE—A combination of freezing temperatures and spray from fire hoses formed icicles on a fence rod in a yard across from an office building that was burning in downtown Oklahoma City yesterday. The spray also froze on the lawn, adding to the unusual effect. Continued intense cold weather today broke records in Northeastern states. (AP Wirephoto)

Record Cold Wave Hits Northeastern States

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Heavy snow piled up in the northeastern section of the nation today while intense cold cracked records.

A storm dropped 14 inches of snow on Nantucket Island off the Massachusetts coast, and stacked up 10 inches in Montpelier, Vt., nine inches in Falmouth, Mass., and seven inches in Bennington, Vt., and Rumford, Maine.

Muskegon, Mich., plodded and plowed through almost three feet of snow.

Frigid air enveloped the North from the Rockies to the Atlantic Coast, forcing temperatures under the zero level in at least 13 states. Readings ranged down to minus 24 at Bemidji, Minn.

The minus 12 in Rockford, Ill., shattered a record for the date set 39 years ago and the minus 11 in Peoria, Ill., broke a 62-year-old record.

Chicagoans shivered through their seventh consecutive day of zero or lower readings, a record run for December. The thermometer registered minus 6 at Midway Airport early in the day and minus 11 at O'Hare Airport. More than 120 head of cattle were stranded in the Missouri River near Kennebec, S.D. The cattle — reported standing chest deep in the icy stream—apparently had wandered to an island-like sand bar and had been trapped by rising water.

A 5-month-old child froze to death in a home in Cherokee County, Ala. Coroner Bill Perry said the baby apparently kicked off the blankets in the unheated house in 5 above cold.

Snow squalls persisted from the Great Lakes eastward to New England.

The mercury dipped to freezing in Tampa, Fla., and to 27 in Jacksonville.

The snowstorm toppled Muskegon's 1962 month of December record of 54.2 inches. The record so far this month is 69.4 inches.

Hope Delaying Christmas Tour

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bob Hope is delaying, on his doctor's advice, departure on his annual Christmas tour of military bases.

His troupe of entertainers was to leave without him today to give a performance as scheduled in Istanbul.

Hope will leave Sunday to join them in Turkey.

A spokesman said Hope was packed and ready when his doctor advised him yesterday to take two more days of rest.

Hamilton Starts Readiness Test

A three-day exercise to test combat readiness of Hamilton Air Force Base started at 7 a.m. today.

This will cause an increase in the air activity over northern Marin County, officials at the base said. Also, warning sirens and fallout shelters will be tested, between 10 and 11 a.m. tomorrow.

Any civilians caught on the base during that hour will be allowed to leave, according to the official announcement.

Ex-Chamber Head Dies In Pool Fall

HILLSBOROUGH (AP)—Brayton Wilbur, 67, former president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, was killed today in a fall into his swimming pool.

DUEL IN FAIRFAX

Critter Fires, Puts Bite On Humane Aide

By RICHARD LYTTLE

An old-time western battle between an original settler and a newcomer took place in the streets of Fairfax near high noon yesterday.

The newcomer got the drop on the bad varmint, but not before the varmint fired a parting shot.

The battle began at 20 paces between Richard Turk of 1108 Irwin Street, San Rafael, a deputy humane officer, and a skunk that may have been rabid.

The skunk had been wandering the neighborhood of Cynthia Court off Oak Manor in Fairfax. He had been in and out of garages and keeping mothers worried about small children.

Turk, on his second call to search for the skunk, spotted it about 11:30. He approached with pistol drawn. The skunk swept in, fired a shot before Turk could take aim, and then dug his sharp teeth into a leg of Turk's trousers.

Turk, highly incensed by now, had to hit the animal with the butt of his pistol to make it let go. Then he shot it.

When Turk returned to the Marin County Humane Society animal shelter, his associates needed little explanation. Windows were thrown open in an effort to air out the building.

The smell still lingered today.

Charles Light, superintendent of the shelter, said the skunk was probably rabid, judging from his unusual behavior.

There will be no test, however. Animals are not tested for rabies unless they have bitten someone.

Turk was only smitten, not bitten.

'Will Marry Soon,' Liz, Burton Say

PUERTO VALLARTA, Mexico (AP) — "We're very happy now, but we'll be happier when we're married," says Richard Burton of his two-year romance with Elizabeth Taylor.

The couple said yesterday that they will marry "just as soon as possible — and the sooner the better."

The announcement capped a self-imposed 48-hour silence following the divorce Sybil Burton obtained Monday in Guadalajara, Mexico.

(AP Wirephoto)

Parseghian 'Amazed' At Rumors

"I think there definitely is a spirit of Notre Dame and we hope to recapture it on the gridiron," declares the new football coach of the Irish, Ara Parseghian.

In San Francisco as an assistant East coach for the East-West football game, Dec. 28, Parseghian arrived to a barrage of questions about his new job with Notre Dame.

He said first that only a "small difference" postponed his signing a contract from Monday to Tuesday, adding he was "amazed and overwhelmed at the speculation it caused."

Secondly, he feels Notre Dame offers a challenge somewhat similar to that at Northwestern when he first became head coach there eight years ago.

Thirdly, he hopes that during the tenure of his four-year contract that Notre Dame will return to the winning prominence it once had.

Parseghian said that with the current populuation explosion there are more good football players and more good football teams than existed 10 to 15 years ago. Therefore it is more difficult for a team to dominate year after year as some did in the past.

"I think the Notre Dame experience will be an interesting one," the 40-year-old coach declared. "Notre Dame hasn't had a winning season in five years."

He said that as soon as the East-West game is over, he will embark on the new job.

Parseghian said that because Notre Dame had not played Northwestern this past season, he was not too familiar with personnel on the squad or coming up from the freshman team.

East-West Contest A 'Preview Of Pros'

By JACK STEVENSON

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Football players of the East and the West report today for what one coach referred to as their preview of pro ball.

For a majority of the 48 collegians who will play in this 39th annual Shrine East-West game at Kezar Stadium on Dec. 28 have been drafted by professional teams. Many have already signed contracts.

Ben Schwartzwalder of Syracuse, an assistant coach for the East, pointed out at the coaches' meeting with newsmen Wednesday that this game has been a preview for some of the great pros of today.

Both squads will use the pro-type offense with split ends and flanker backs although the West with Baylor's Don Trull and Southern California's Pete Beathard at quarterback can be expected to pass more than the East.

Coach Jack Mollenkopf of Purdue, head coach of the East, can counter this aerial offense with some fleet backs including Sherman Lewis of Michigan State, Paul Krause of Iowa—signed just Tuesday by the Washington Redskins—and Jay Wilkinson of Duke.

DIRECT EAST

Either Ron DiGravio of Purdue or Pete Liske of Penn State, a New York Jet signee, will be at quarterback for the East.

Jim Sutherland, who coached Washington State through 1963, heads the West coaching staff and his squad includes, in addition to throwers, such pass catchers as Vern Burke of Oregan State, Dave Parks of Texas Tech, Mel Profit of UCLA and Willie Brown of Southern California.

The West also has speed in the backfield including a pair from Arizona State—Tony Lorick, sought by both Oakland and Baltimore, and Chuck Taylor, the No. 1 draft choice of Washington, who has signed with the NFL team.

Remarkably, after 38 games, the East and West are even in total points scored — 455 for each. The West has won 18 times, the East 16, including a 25-19 decision in the latest game, and there have been four ties.

Hawks Blast Wilt For Goal Tending

SACRAMENTO (AP)—San Francisco's Warriors own their longest victory streak of the season—but St. Louis Hawks' coach Harry Gallatin says it came because of what he called goal-tending by Wilt Chamberlain.

The Warriors trimmed the Hawks 104-96 last night for their third straight victory and moved within 1½ games of the second-placers in the National Basketball Assn.'s Western Division.

Chamberlain topped the Warriors with 27 points, pulled in 27rebounds and led the team in assists with 11. But Gallatin said that Wilt's defensive activities made the difference.

"There was no question about it," said the St. Louis caoch. "He took them right off the back board." Officials called Chamberlain twice for goal-tending but he was not penalized on a Bob Pettit shot in the fourth period.

It incensed Gallatin so much that he drew a technical foul.

The cautious first period ended with St. Louis on top 20-17. The lead changed hands 11 times in the second and third periods before the Warriors pulled away to a lead that reached 12 points with less than four minutes to play. A crowd of 2,872 fans saw the game at Sacramento High School gym.

Andy Kerr Will Miss East-West Game For First Time In 35 Years

Jack Hanley

Andy Kerr will be home this Christmas for the first time in 35 years. Since 1928 the spry little Scotsman and his wife, Mary, spent their Christmases at the Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children in San Francisco.

The other day Mrs. Kerr slipped and fractured her hip in the Kerr home at Hamilton, N.Y. Kerr naturally is passing up this year's East-West game and his annual visit to the Shrine hospital to remain with his wife.

"We'll miss him," said Bill Coffman, director the Shrine game since its inception in 1925, "because through the years he contributed much to the game. But we are more concerned about the injury to Mrs. Kerr. I sincerely hope her recovery is speedy."

Kerr, now a bouncy octogenarian, hadn't missed an East-West game since 1928 when he first started coaching the East team for which he now is business manager and head of the player selection committee.

He loved the game itself but even closer to his heart was the Shrine hospital for which the game is played. Each year he would stand on the steps of the hospital on 19th Avenue and watch the players from both teams enter.

"WHEN THEY come out," he used to say, 'they won't be quite the same. They'll be richer for the experience. They'll never forget it."

Then, Kerr would enter the hospital himself, wrapped in warm memories of his first visit in 1928.

"When friends back East learned I was invited to be the East coach," he would recall, "they requested me to visit their niece, a patient.

"I FOUND her in a sunlit ward. Ethel had spinal trouble. She was a little older than the rest of the boys and girls in the hospital and she knew how serious her condition was. But Ethel got well and now is married with her own family.

'She also became a laboratory technician, reached the top in her profession, so she could help others. Ever since that Christmas long ago when I first met her, Ethel and I have been corresponding. It has been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life.

"ETHEL IS only one of literally thousands of children helped by the East-West game that truly is Football's Finest Hour."

Yes, Andy will be missed at the 39th playing of the East-West game this year but the tradition he helped establish will go on. May his first Christmas at home in 35 years be a joyous one and may God speed the recovery of his good wife, Mary.

Hey, Hunters, Wait Until Next Year!

By JERRY HARRELL

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Many California deer hunters, like Giants fans, are saying "wait till next year."

The nimrods can speak with some conviction, because all signs are pointing toward a better year in 1964.

"We feel we've hit our low and now we're on the increase again," says Jack Hiehle, game management specialist in the State Department of Fish and Game.

"Things should be looking better next year," he said.

Fawn production and survival is up due to the two wet years after the drought of 1959-61, browse is more abundant and the herds are in good shape.

Final figures on this year's deer kill—released yesterday—showed the bag up about 2,000 from the dismal 1962 season, but still about 10,000 below the five-year average of 66 352.

An additional 3,541 deer taken this year in special antlerless and either-sex hunts boosted the overall 1963 total to 60,355 deer.

Humboldt County, which has hunting in both the early and late seasons, emerged as the No. 1 deer producer with 4,961 bucks bagged. Mendocino, open only in the early coastal season, dropped from first to second with 4,367.

Game managers attributed record north coastal bags to the fact that the moist area escaped the 1959-61 drought that cut herds elsewhere in California, and to an increase of deer habitat opened by logging.

Siskiyou County was third with 3,885 bucks.

Restrictive rules — limiting hunting to bucks and slashing the season to three weeks—in Lassen, Modoc and eastern Shasta and Siskiyou counties produced a sharply reduced bag.

Modoc and Lassen, had a combined buck kill of 1,566 compared with a five-year average of 6,366.

Other top counties and bags: Shasta, 2,808; Tehama 2,651; Mono 2,458; Trinity 2,218; Sonoma 1,799; Plumas 1,797; Monterey 1,610; Alpine 1,419.

Rod Monti Of San Rafael Sets Scoring Record

San Rafael High School's Rod Monti set a school individual scoring record with his 37-point performance when the Bulldog cagers dumped Montgomery High School 69-50 in Santa Rosa Tuesday.

Monti scored his points on 11 field goals and 15 free throws, seven of the free tosses coming in the last quarter. He had a total charity throw output of 15 out of 17 tries. Monti also led his team in rebounding with 15.

Wade Roberts had 12 points in the game for the Bulldogs.

Nicasio Creek Gets 30,000 Silver Salmon

Nicasio Creek is among five coastal streams in Northern California getting a bonus plant of approximately 80,000 silver salmon fingerlings this week from the Department of Fish and Game.

Nicasio Creek is being stocked with 20,000 above Nicasio Dam and 10,000 below the dam. The DFG notes that these fingerlings are surplus fish from eggs taken to produce the half million yearling silver salmon now being stocked annually in eight selected coastal streams.

The fingerlings were produced at the DFG's Darrah Springs hatchery in Shasta County and are being distributed from the department's planting base at Yountville.

Carlisle Leads Drake Faculty To Cage Victory

Drake High School's faculty, plus one, donned basketball togs, took to the courts, and beat the Pirates varsity team 46-40 Tuesday.

The plus one was Chester Carlisle, superintendent of the Tamalpais Union High School District, who scored 13 points. Carlisle was a cage star when he attended University of California.

Top scorer for the faculty team was former All-American Albert "Cappy" Lavin who racked up 16 points. Other members of the faculty team to hit the scoring column were Larry Dickey (7), Richard DeConti (5), Verle Sorgen (3) and Ted Nagel (2).

The varsity team's scoring was led by Dennis Hannigan with 14 points.

New Volleyball Tourney Champs

Del Mar of Tiburon won the boys division and Larkspur-Corte Madera won the girls division of the third annual volleyball tournament sponsored by the Redwood Recreation District.

The tourney, which drew about 500 spectators, was held in the Redwood High School gym yesterday. In the finale, Del Mar's boys' team nipped Larkspur-Corte Madera 21-19, and the Larkspur-Corte Madera girls' team whipped Neil Cummins, 21-8.

Top Indian Rookies

Cleveland has two highly regarded rookie outfielders coming up next season. They are Bob Chance, who hit .342 at Charleston and Ruthford Salmon who matted .325 at Denver.

A Well-Remembered Christmas Eve Aboard A 'Care-Free' Boat In 1952

A well-remembered Christmas Eve! It was aboard a cruiser we owned in 1952. It was snowing. Not the goose-feather type, but huge misshapen lumps that fell on the canvas decks and cabin roof. An old fashioned, four-sided toaster over a burner made the little galley pleasantly warm. Coffee perked on the back of the stove. Possibly at this moment, for the first time, we felt a slight comradeship with this peculiar craft.

We had named her Care-Free. As a misnomer, this still stands as a classic. She was a 30-footer, and that old cliche, as-broad-as-she's-long, was fully applicable to her strange configuration. Care-Free was a prima-donna, yet alas, without grace, performance or beauty to support the claim.

NOW SHE was berthed in Martinez, on the east side of San Francisco Bay, but somewhat inland on the Carquinez Straits. The town of Benicia is on the opposite banks. At that time, in fact until this year, the Benicia Auto Ferry made regular trips.

It was perverse for snow to fall in this area. We drank coffee, watching the ferry come and go like a white wraith, wondering if we shouldn't drive our car aboard and head back to Marin. Next week we'd probably try to get our boat home. In the summer, in a moment of insanity, we had taken her all the way to Sacramento. Every weekend for the past three months had been spent in moving her back down river. We proceeded only short distances each time, from marina to marina; for this was a summer of unforgetable winds. Violent and sustained, they made gray turmoil of the river.

YOU MIGHT say Care-Free never did float. At least not in the sense of appearing buoyant. Actually she TREADED water hysterically. In the most mirror-calm waters she yawed, and no hand was hard enough to hold her on course. At a certain speed, any further throttle advance instantly settled her stern. Her bow reared up and up, until it seemed she must surely perform a graceless back-flip.

Whirling and swerving like a third-rate bath tub, she bumbled her way slowly down river. Frightened pleasure craft gave her a wide berth. Commercial barge pilots waved arms and tooted. However, when she chose to usurp mid-channel from an approaching Navy destroyer, she met her match. It took two hours to pump out her bilge. She was for sale, of course. A sign in her window said so.

IT WAS almost dark now. We stayed aboard. Popped popcorn. Located some grangrened Gorganzola and crackers. Went out on the wharf and made wet snow balls. Lights beckoned at the little marina store. An Italian fisherman sang Ava Maria to his accordian. Everyone sang Christmas carols. Warm, spiced wine was hospitality of the store.

Early next morning, someone knocked on Care-Free's chine, shouting, "Mer-r-ry Christmas. Maybe I buya your fat boat. How mucha you take for her, eh?"

Blissfully, from the depths of warm blankets, we answered, "Sorry. She's-a not for sale. Mer-r-ry Christmas!

First Stringer Quits USC Quint

LOS ANGELES (AP) — First-string forward Ron Way has quit the USC basketball team.

Coach Forrest Twogood said yesterday Wey will be replaced by sophomore Bill Westphal.

USC said Wey, a senior, is giving up athletics for personal reasons. He had averaged eight points a game and was the team's fourth highest scorer.

3 Marin Pirate Swimmers Have High National Times

Three Marin Pirates team members were listed in the 1962-63 summary of National AAU age group and Junior Olympic top swimming times released this month.

Candy Beeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Beeler of Greenbrae, and Susan and Teresa Carlisle, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Carlisle of Sleepy Hollow, established long course breaststroke times that ranked among the best in the United States for their age groups.

According to Junior Swimmer and Swimming World, which compiles the annual ratings, Candy's time of 2:53.4 for the 200-yard breaststroke was fourth in the U. S. for the 13-14 girls age group. In the Junior Olympics girls intermediate division, she placed third nationally in the 100-meter breaststroke, 1:26.6, and fourth in the 200-meter breaststroke, 3:09.1.

Susan Carlisle also placed fourth nationally in the 50-yard breaststroke for girls 11-12, with a time of 37.4. Her sister, Teresa, was fifth nationally in the 10 and under girls division with a 41.5 clocking in the 50-yard breaststroke.

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Big Final Day Of Pheasant Hunt, But Now It's Time For Pigeons

STEVENS

It's not always the early birds that catch the worms. At times the Johnny-come-lately nimrods hit the jackpot. So it was on the last day of pheasant shooting. According to reports from the F&G, the last day of the season, Dec. 8, was a dilly. Lots of limits bagged, and that is mighty unusual.

But that's past history now. The scatter gunners are turning their attention to a trip after California's band-tailed pigeons. The second portion of the pigeon season began on Dec. 14, and will continue through Jan. 12, 1964. That is, it will be open season in 45 counties but closed in the other 13 counties (Del Norte, Siskiyou, Modoc, Lassen, Shasta, Humboldt, Trinity, Mendocino, Tehama, Butte, Glenn, Plumas and Sierra.) The DFG reports populations of pigeons on western slopes of the Sierras from Butte County to Kern County, and Coast range mountains. As the season progresses, chances are many of the birds will move south.

IT IS still open season on bear, which will extend through New Year's Day; waterfowl which will run through Jan. 5, 1964; and black sea brant which ends on January 31. Better check the 1963 hunting regulations booklet for areas open to hunting, bag and possession limits.

Still on the subject of hunting, here is some good news: The U.S. Bureau of Land Management and the DFG jointly have approved the wildlife management plans for 112,089 acres of public land straddling the Lake-Colusa County line and extending into portions of Napa, Glenn and Yolo counties. Long range objectives of the plan include development of public access, game habitat improvement such as opening up thick stands of brush and the development of springs.

Columbian black-tailed deer and valley quail are found throughout the area, and other game species include black bear, mountain quail, mourning doves, tree squirrels, brush rabbits and jack rabbits.

ANOTHER type of hunting that will interest a hardy segment of sportsmen is the picking, digging and gathering of the most delicious bivalve mollusks extant, the Pismo clam. The way the F&G puts it: "At both Pismo Beach and Morro Bay, Pismo claim diggers willing to work in waist-deep water can still get a limit of 10 legal sized clams in from 15 to 25 minutes." Persons unwilling or unable to get out into the surf can take a fair number from the beach at Pismo but will find them a bit scarcer at Morro Bay.

Prospects for a successful duck and goose hunt over the weekend look rather bright. Tens-of-thousands of pintails and bluies have winged into this section according to reports. An unverified report has it that the black sea brant are starting to feed off shore near Marshall on Tomales Bay, but I couldn't track the rumor down. Use your own judgment if you have a yen to bag a sea goose. And that's it for today. Chow!

Seals In League Basement

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—It's a cinch that a hockey team is in trouble when even the goalie tries to bring the puck up the ice.

Chubby Bob Perreault of the floundering San Francisco Seals did it last night during the second period of a 4-0 loss to the pace-setting Denver Invaders. After stopping a couple of shots, the former Boston net-minder personally convoyed the puck about 30 feet toward his own blue line, then let his teammates take over.

But they didn't get the message. Some six minutes after Perreault's solo, the Invaders scored twice more on tallies by Rudy Migay and Gordon Redahi.

Both goals came within a span of two minutes on rebounds and gave the Invaders a 4-0 advantage that they never relinquished. Tallies by Bruce Draper and John Sleaver accounted for the first two Denver points in the opening period.

It was the eighth loss in 10 games for the defending Western Hockey League champions, who fell into a three-game tie for last place. Denver now leads the loop by nine points.

"We're making mistakes that you just don't see in pro hockey," Seals coach Bud Poile said afterwards. "We're pretty sick alright."

The Seals are idle until Saturday night when they try again against the Los Angeles Blades.

No Catchers Wanted

Twenty-four players were named in the National League's most valuable player poll but not one catcher drew recognition from the 20 writers who voted.

Pact Limits Number Of TV Games For College Teams

NEW YORK (AP) — There is more money in the television kitty for the colleges to share in but appearances of any one school have been limited under the new two-year pact between the NCAA and the National Broadcasting Co.

NBC was awarded the college football package Tuesday with a bid of $13,044,000 for two years. This is a hike of $1,422,000 the amount CBS paid for the rights for the 1962 and 1963 seasons.

Asa Bushnell, commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference and a member of the NCAA's TV committee, said today each school is limited to a total of three appearances in two years and no more than two — one national and one regional telecast over two years.

Under the old pact, a college could appear once nationally and once regionally in one year and twice nationally and regionally in two years for a total of four exposures.

COFFEY A SECOND STRINGER!

Owens Shakes Up Huskies; Three Backfield Changes

LONG BEACH (AP)—Jim "the Juggler" Owens is at it again.

The coach of Washington's Rose Bowl team announced yesterday that he has an almost entirely new first-string backfield.

Owens, who is forever juggling his lineup, moved Dick Wetterauer to left halfback in place of Ron Medved, Steve Bramwell to right half in place of Dave Kopay and Charlie Browning to fullback in place of Junior Coffey.

Quarterback Bill Douglas is the only regular backfield starter who held his job.

Guard Rick Redman also was promoted to the first unit. He'd been there before. He was demoted last month, along with all the other starters, in another of Owens' sweeping changes. That was after the Huskies were upset 14-0 by UCLA.

Owens said the men promoted yesterday were "just doing a better job in practice and deserve to be on the first unit."

Coffey and Redman made the All-Coast team this year. Redman also is a third-team All America.

Quarterback Bill Siler, who started Washingon's first game this season, has been moved from the third to the second unit. Siler contracted hepatitis after the season opener and missed nine games.

The Huskies, who have been working out twice daily, held their only public practice today.

Illinois, the team they'll meet in the Rose Bowl New Year's Day, arrived in Southern California this weekend.

ALBANY (AP)—Rotar, $17.40, won the feature at Golden Gate Fields yesterday with a strong stretch drive.

Search Narrows For Fresno State Coach

FRESNO (AP)—The search for a new head football coach at Fresno State College has narrowed to three candidates. But school officials refuse to reveal their names.

Former Coach Cecil Coleman resigned to become the college's athletic director.

Brazil Attitude On Africa Is Changing

By H. Stuart Morrison
Worldwide Press Service

RIO DE JANEIRO — Brazil's hitherto aggressive attitude on behalf of independence for Portuguese colonies in Africa is undergoing a change which is expected to continue.

Diplomatic sources here insist that this does not mean Brazil will abandon her stand in favor of the self-determination of peoples. This goes for Fidel Castro's Communist government of Cuba, for example. The difference is, they explain, that Brazil is taking a more realistic view of self-determination where it applies to Portugal and her overseas colonies.

There are two main reasons for this new trend:

1. Brazil has always had close relations with Portugal, being the only Latin American nation which derives its culture and language from the European country. But Portugal is currently cool about extending help to Brazil whose economy is in critical condition.

2. The Brazilian Foreign Office is being pressured by various Brazilian organizations founded by Goanese here to "force" India to liberate the Portuguese colonies which she took over a couple of years ago.

This second development is an interesting example of "you can't have it both ways."

In December, 1961, India used military force to take physical possession of the small Portuguese colonies of Goa, Damao and Diu on India's west coast, both north and south of Bombay.

Despite Portugal's protests, Brazil remained silent, refusing even moral support. Now, however, she can not ignore the local demands that Goa and other Portuguese colonies be granted independence.

The leader of the Goanese movement here is Alvarro de Santa Rita Vaz, former newspaper owner of the "Daily Herald" in Goa.

He claims the movement has 650,000 follower, of which 80,000 are in Bombay. And he says that in the United States and Canada, as well as Europe, Africa and Venezuela, large numbers of Goanese plan to launch similar campaigns for freedom.

Some favor complete independence from India. And still others want the self-determined right to return to the status of a Portuguese colony.

A Goanese delegation is being formed to take the case to the United Nations. It plans to ask the UN to hold a plebiscite and let the people of Goa, Damao and Diu decide their own future as African and other areas of the world are being encouraged to do.

For many years, Brazil has maintained good relations with India and has no desire to jeopardize them. On the other hand, neither can she afford to offend further her mother country.

Portugal feels Brazil went too far in granting political asylum to the Portuguese rebels who seized a Portuguese luxury liner in 1961. This episode still rankles in Lisbon.

"Brazil will not abandon her position in favor of independence for Angola and Mozambique," one diplomat told this correspondent. "But we will abstain from any drastic actions."

Up to now, Brazil's diplomatic talks regarding the independence of these two African colonies of Portugal have been very one-sided—i.e., exclusively with African diplomats.

By softening this policy, and abstaining from voting for strong measures proposed by the African nations in the UN, Brazil hopes to re-open discussions with the Salazar government in Lisbon — on terms more favorable to Brazil.

Because Of 'Dream'

FELTHAM, England (UPI) — Gibson Brown, 25, was acquitted of attempted car theft Monday when he explained he was in a "dream" induced by an anti-asthma drug and got into a stranger's car because he thought he was going to a wedding.

Parties Planned Throughout Marin Before Debutante Ball

A host of small dinners and cocktail gatherings are planned in Marin homes before guests and hosts depart for the second Marin Debutante Ball at Peacock Gap Country Club on Saturday.

HAVING A group in for cocktails and supper at their home will be the Russell Smiths of Ross. Mrs. John S. O'Neill, whose daughter Katie is one of the debutantes, will have a group in for dinner at her home in San Rafael. Her guests will include Dr. and Mrs. Jack Seifert of Lafayette, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Munson, who are Katie's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Carlo Caletti and Robert Pendergrass.

The Frank Paganinis will have friends in for cocktails and a buffet at their home in Del Mesa before going on to the ball, and the Charles Vances of Kentfield will have a few friends, including the Frank Schmitts of San Francisco, in before leaving for the club, where their daughter Nini will make her bow. The Schmitts will be hosts at a reception Dec. 27 honoring Nini and Wendy Wilkins and Dorothy Broemmel, who will also make their bows on Saturday.

OTHER PARENTS of the debs who are entertaining are the Joseph Coopers, who will give a dinner party with the Philip McCoys at the latter's home in Kent Woodlands; the Dick DeBerrys will be hosts to three couples for cocktails and a buffet supper at their Tiburon home. Their guests will include the Gerald Trautmans of Hillsborough, uncle and aunt of deb Janet DeBerry, and from Belvedere the W. C. Witters and Robert Bagnalls.

ALSO OUT Belvedere way the George Bannings, whose daughter Julie will be presented at the ball, will host a small cocktail gathering at their home, inviting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stanton and Mr. and Mrs. William Steen of Belvedere.

THE HUGH SHIPPEYS of Ross will have as their pre-ball guests the William Hoxies, whose daughter Heidi will be among the debs.

THE FAMILY of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Griffith of Ross, whose daughter Ann is a deb, will be guests of the Gregory Solons of Ross, who will serve cocktails and a buffet at their home for a group before the ball.

THE JOSEPH Hickingbothams of San Rafael will entertain guests beforehand, and over in Kentfield the James Levensalers will pass cocktails and hors d'oeuvres to a group of friends, who will then attend the ball.

SUSAN ENEMARK, who will make her debut at the Marin Debutante Ball on Saturday, will be honored by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred F. Enemark, on Friday at a buffet supper following the rehearsal at Peacock Gap Country Club. Guests for the supper will be debutantes, escorts, parents of the debs and members of the ball committee and their husbands. Dancing will follow the event.

Party In Kentfield Fetes Debutante Dominga Vance

Dominga Vance, who will be presented at the Marin Debutante Ball on Saturday, was honored at a party last evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Vance of Kentfield.

The nearly 200 guests included the other Marin debs and their escorts and the young people who will attend the ball as well as family members and friends from San Francisco and the Peninsula.

Green pine boughs with accents of white and antique gold ornaments decorated the home and Nini and her parents received their guests before a room where arrangements of gilded smilax and Australian flax were placed. A white Christmas tree with gold balls was set up in the other living room, and Nini's gift orchids were pinned on white swags of pine over the fireplace.

Nini chose a soft jade green of paisley brocade dress and carried old fashioned roses with tiny clusters of pine needles. Her mother received guests in a dress of printed silk satin.

Chrismons Bring A Christian Message

A Christmas tree with a Christian message provides festive adornment for Marin Lutheran Church of Corte Madera this holiday season through the service of a group of women and girls of the congregation's Christian Fellowship organization, sponsors of the project.

The branches of the 12-foot tree in its natural green bear handmade ornaments, which are monograms of Christ, featuring symbols which have been handed down through the centuries of Christian history. Known as Chrismons, the ornaments were originated at the Lutheran Church of the Ascension in Danville, Va., in 1957 for use in their own church. The ornaments have not been produced for sale.

DECORATING a Christmas tree which brings a Christmas message for the Marin Lutheran Church in Corte Madera are, from left, Mesdames Gerald W. Garlid, wife of the pastor, and Arthur Andre. Mrs. Garlid directed a group of the congregation's Christmas Fellowship organization in making Chrismons, which are monograms of Christ and feature symbols handed down through centuries of Christmas. The tree with its all gold and white Chrismons may be viewed at the church from Christmas Day through Dec. 29 from 7 to 9 p.m.

Receiving permission from the originators to use the copyrighted patterns, the Christian Fellowship organization decided to sponsor and finance the unusual decorating project at Marin Lutheran. The work of making the Chrismons was organized and directed by Mrs. Gerald W. Garlid, wife of the pastor.

Besides meeting in groups at the church several Monday mornings, the women did much of the work individually in their homes. The result was the production of 163 Chrismons in 18 basic shapes and bearing a great variety of designs, all symbols of Christ.

ENTIRELY IN gold and white, Chrismons involved the use of such items as styrofoam, beads, sequin, mesh, braid, glitter and wire. Many members of the congregation responded to the invitation to contribute such materials. Besides following the original patterns, women of the church originated several designs. Tiny white lights, symbolizing the purity of Christ, the Light of the World, provide the only other decoration for the tree, which is topped by the Star of Bethlehem, with a beaded Messianic rose at its center.

"IT IS LIKELY that the Christmon tree will become a tradition in our church," commented Arthur Andre, president of the sponsoring organization. "In this project, which aroused so much enthusiasm both among the participants and sponsors, we have just made a beginning. Next year we plan to follow some of the more complicated patterns, and already our women are talking about original ideas for other ornaments bearing Christian symbols."

From Christmas Day through Dec. 29, Marin Lutheran Church will be open from 7 to 9 p.m. each evening for prayer and meditation upon these symbols. Members of Christian Fellowship will welcome visitors and be ready to explain the symbols of the Chrismons. An explanatory leaflet also will be distributed to guests.

Susan Eileen Marvin Recites Vows In Sleepy Hollow Church

The Sleepy Hollow Presbyterian Church was the setting on Saturday for the wedding of Susan Eileen Marvin of Fairfax and Adolpf Friedel Kopf of Novato.

Officiating for the double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock was the Rev. Gene Burris.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Jarvis of Fairfax.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white peau de soie trimmed with Alencon lace and seed pearls. The skirt extended into a chapel train.

Preceding the bride down the aisle in cranberry velveteen grows were her sister Mrs. Royce Beck as matron of honor and Dorothy Wilson, bridesmaid.

Helge Bruckner of San Anselmo acted as best man and ushering duties were performed by Steve Mekler of Sunnyvale and Kenneth Jarvis II of Fairfax.

A reception followed the ceremony in the social hall of the church.

The bride was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and College of Marin where she is now a receptionist. Mrs. Ted Gamble of Long Beach is also her sister. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Norman Jarvis of Long Beach and the late Dr. Jarvis and Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Reed of Garden Grove.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Sparrenberger of Sunnyvale was graduated from Drake High School and is employed with Lenscott Corp. He is the brother of Mrs. Charles E. Converce of Italy. The late Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Lindenmayer of Germany and Heinrich Kopf of Germany and the late Mrs. Kopf are his grandparents.

The newlyweds will reside in Novato.

Southerners Warm Up To A Green Christmas

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Snow is unlikely and the temperatures are apt to be in the 60's or 70's, but Christmas in south Louisiana is as happy and bright as it is in any snowed-in section of the world.

Instead of a Yankee-type white Christmas, the surroundings here are more likely to be green or autumn brown. The children on Christmas morning probably will be able to give their new roller skates and bicycles a real sidewalk test—instead of having to peer through snow-caked windows, wishing they could be outside.

Of course it might rain. But rain doesn't have to be shoveled away.

The spirit is the same as elsewhere, but Christmas in south Louisiana is a little different from most parts of the nation, partly because of the weather, partly because of the predominately French Catholic population.

In towns like Houma and Mille Platte, some old residents still recite their Christmas prayers in French. Santa Claus is apt to be known as Papa Noel.

At midnight of Christmas eve, tens of thousands of Catholics and their friends jam cathedrals throughout the southern part of the state for solemn high Masses. The midnight Masses interrupt parties at least temporarily to remind people of the real beginning of Christmas.

The best known of the Louisiana midnight Masses is sung at the St. Louis Cathedral, in the middle of the French Quarter here. Thousands of residents and tourists jam the main floor and the balconies of the 169-year-old church. The crowd overflows on to the sidewalk and almost into the historic Jackson Square across Chartres Street.

While jazz bards blare and French Quarter dancers strip a few blocks away, the thousands at the cathedral raise their voices in Christmas hymns as the archbishop of New Orleans celebrates the Mass.

Christmas in New Orleans is also the beginning of a long gay season that starts with the exchanging of gifts Christmas morning. It extends through the week-long Sugar Bowl festival of sports, the long carnival season of balls and parades, and ends with Mardi Gras, the maddest day of all, on Feb. 10. Then it's back to self-sacrifice for the season of Lent.

Washing Caution

Think twice before laundering an outdoor jacket labeled "washable." A Michigan State University home economist tested seven types of jackets which bore washable labels. She found that dry cleaning was much safer in all seven.

She also discovered that it's extremely risky to launder a jacket which has no cleaning instructions on the label. One jacket she laundered looked washable, but the lining shrank 16.2 per cent.

Carving The Holiday Bird Practically Work Of Art

Carving the holiday bird — whether it be a duck, turkey, goose or a partridge (in a pear tree) — is a happy task.

And when it is done with skill, flair and a fine set of carving tools, it is practically an art.

The secret to successful bird carving is a sharp knife, applied to one side at a time. Here's how:

First, insert the fork firmly through the center of the wishbone. Place the platter so the legs of the bird are to your right. Start by carving the leg nearest you.

Make a vertical cut on each side of the second joint of the leg where it is attached to the body by skin. Bend the entire leg downward toward the platter, exposing the ball socket connecting the leg to the body. With the point of the slicer, cut through the socket and connecting skin and remove the leg.

Next, cut off the wing nearest you. Place the roast slicer parallel to the wing: then move the handle of the knife out about 15 degrees and cut by pushing the knife forward.

To slice the breast meat, place the blade at the top of the breastbone. Push the knife downward and forward toward the wing socket. For the second slice, move the handle of the knife a degree closer to the body of the bird. Repeat the same for all consecutive slices.

When you have finished one side of the bird, turn to the other side and carve it the same way.

Assembly Degrees

Degrees of initiation have been conferred by San Rafael Assembly 195, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, on Barbara Barton, Lynne Sullivan, Kathy Meleyco and Barbara Brest.

Norell Introduces Spring Collection

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI) — Fashion designer Norman Norell takes off in two general directions in his spring collection—one toward femininity with swinging, knife-pleated skirts, the other toward the mannish with trouser suits and boy bob haircuts for his mannequins.

The designer who hold a number of fashion awards was one of the last big names on Seventh Avenue, center of New York's garment industry, to open his spring collection. Most held openings in November. Norell previewed his day and evening clothes for reporters at a black tie opening Monday night.

SHORT STRAIGHT hair on the Norell models has been standard for several seasons. Never has it been shorter or sleeker, parted on the side, cut into a near shingle at the back and the only hair forward of the ear, the wispy points plastered against the temples.

Trouser suits, tailored as a man's, went with the boy bobs. Norell showed them with both closed and cardigan jackets in men's wear fabrics such as shepherd's check and Prince of Wales plaid.

NORELL CATEGORIZED his more conventional daytime suits in three categories:

The tailored suits with pleated skirts. Many of these had double-breasted jacket closings.

The suit which the designer said "is not a suit, but to be worn when you wear a suit," consists of skirt, shirt and scarf.

Third was the suit with the easy, flared skirt and raglan sleeve jacket. In most instances, the sleeves were cropped above the elbow.

Two-piece dresses also came with pleated skirts. He included a number of loosely cut dresses belted at the natural waistline and some with subdued flounces at the hem.

THE DESIGNER added a military look to many day clothes with brass buttons, wider shoulders (some coats had padded shoulders), and suit jackets which were variations of the Eisenhower field jacket of World War II with its fabric waistband closing.

Fame Won't Hem In The New First Lady

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Most first ladies in the past gave up the fun of shopping in Washington and going to the hairdresser after they moved into the White House but Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson has her own ideas.

First ladies have ordered their costumes from the New York houses or by mail order and the hairdresser would be given a special pass to come to the White House family quarters. In the case of former First Lady Jacqueline Kennedy, dress designer Oleg Cassini took care of most of her wardrobe needs when she designated him her number one designer. She also often had hair stylist Kenneth of New York fly down to do her spectacular coiffures for special ceremonial evenings. Other times she would put up her own hair with the help of her personal maid.

But Mrs. Johnson apparently is not going to let her new fame as first lady hem her in. She is taking the White House in her stride and still venturing forth into the city as she always has.

The day the Johnsons moved into the White House, the first lady slipped out in the afternoon to go to her favorite hairdresser, Jean Louis, who has been styling her hair for two years.

AND JEAN LOUIS thinks that she knows what suits her best. He says her black hair is combed forward with no parting and not too much bouffant teasing.

As the vice president's wife, Mrs. Johnson always came into his elegant Connecticut shop like any other customer and waited her turn. Like most women she liked to relax under the dryer, her hour or so away from a busy schedule.

Harrison Leppos Are Having A Busy Christmas Season

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

This is a busy time of year for the Harrison McNear Leppos of Mill Valley. Yesterday Mrs. Harrison (Florence) Leppo entertained 20 guests at a luncheon at the Women's Christmas party at the Meadow Club. Florence was chairman of the day. Christmas songs were sung by members of the seventh grade of Marin Country Day School. Today Florence Leppo is giving a tea at her home for neighbors and their children after they sing Christmas carols.

Christmas will find the Leppo home full of guests. Their son, Robert, a junior at Stanford, is already home for the holidays. The Leppos will also be joined for Christmas dinner by their son, William D. Leppo, an electronics engineer with the USN ordnance testing station at China Lake, California, his wife, Harrison's mother, Mrs. Clara McNear Leppo of San Francisco, his brother, George Leppo of Santa Rosa and his wife, his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Rockwell Hereford of San Francisco and their son, David.

MR. AND MRS. DAVID GARFINKEL of Kentfield formerly of San Francisco entertained 70 friends at a cocktail party at their home Sunday. Assisting the Garfinkels in greeting guests were their daughter, Juliet Garfinkel-Rode who drove up from Atherton, and David Garfinkel's sister, Mrs. Irving Woolf of Berkeley.

Mrs. Garfinkel, who is currently exhibiting in the San Francisco Women Artists' 38th Annual Exhibit at the San Francisco Museum, is on the Artists' Advisory Council of both the San Francisco Women Artists and the Marin Society of Artists.

MR. AND MRS. NORTON HASTINGS of San Rafael have named their baby daughter, Jennifer. She is their third child. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Vernon of Lake County, Mrs. Cedric Clute of San Anselmo and Ross Hastings of Malibu.

MR. AND MRS. WINTHROP WATROUS of Kentfield are enjoying a holiday visit from their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Barry Brennan, who flew from Kobe, Japan where they lived for a year and a half. They arrived with their two small daughters, Frances and Kate.

MRS. ALEXANDER McANDREW of Ross had a delightful surprise. Her son, Michael McCone, who is with the Peace Corps is Sierra Leone is Africa, flew here for a brief visit with her and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Charles of San Francisco, parents of his wife, Nini. Mike has left for Washington, D.C. and returns to Africa to join his wife and their three small sons for Christmas. Mr. and Mrs. Charles had just returned from Sierra Leone and a three weeks visit with their daughter and her family.

LINDA BILLINGS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Billings of Kentfield, will be honored at a pre-nuptial shower Saturday by Mrs. Thomas E. Fairey of Greenbrae. Linda will become the bride of Earl Warren Erickson January 21 at Trinity Lutheran Church in San Rafael. The Meadow Club will be the locale for the wedding reception.

MRS. WALTER T. WINTER of Tiburon was honored at a surprise stork shower and brunch given at Peacock Gap Country Club Saturday. Hostesses were Mesdames Richard Mannheimer, Richard Friedman and Richard Firestone. Centering the table was a Christmas tree covered with blue net caught with pink ornaments. A robe was presented to Mrs. Winter by the guests. These were Mesdames Evan Goldenberg, Richard Bernstein, Robert Sockolov, Robert Waxman, Maurice Koch, Fred Pill, Stanley Narin, Donald Lee, Edward Silverman, and Hillard Rose.

ADMIRING THE GIFTS

Placing gifts under the tree at the third annual Christmas in Marin dance held at Peacock Gap Country Club are sponsors, from left, Mesdames Robert Dawson, Joseph Tilt and Albert Gedman. More than 250 guests brought gifts to be given to Sonoma State Hospital.

Marin Women

Donna Lou Johns Will Marry John Albachten In February

Mr. and Mrs. George Haywood announced the engagement of Mrs. Haywood's daughter, Donna Lou Johns, to Charles Albachten of Mill Valley at a recent buffet supper given at their home in San Rafael.

Donna Lou was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and the College of Marin and is employed as a business representative of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. in San Rafael. Her sisters are Mesdames Ronald Gaither of Woodacre, David Watts of Santa Venetia, Frank Brown of Napa and Bruce Meyers of Pennsylvania.

John, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Albachten of Mill Valley, was graduated from Tamalpais High School and attended Golden Gate College. He teaches sky diving and is working for his commercial pilot's license. He is employed by the Top Hat Market in Mill Valley.

He is the brother of Mrs. Rudolph Bush of Mill Valley and Robert Albachten of San Rafael.

The young couple is planning a February wedding.

Active Clubwoman Is Elected President Of Republican Group

Leadership is nothing new for the president of the Marin Federated Republican Women, Mrs. William H. MacKay of Kent Woodlands.

The 24-year resident of Marin, who is the wife of an attorney and mother of three sons, has long been an active participant in religious, civic, cultural and political organizations.

Helen MacKay has been a member of the Republican Women for 12 years and as president will foster loyalty to the Republican party and promote its ideals.

MRS. MACKAY

ALONG with group activities, Mrs. MacKay also finds time to indulge in her favorite pastimes of gardening, swimming, reading, bridge, tennis, hiking and golf. A number of years ago, she went to the semi-finals of the Southwestern Women's Golf Championships.

The new president is also active in the Women's Guild of the First Presbyterian Church of San Anselmo, Tamalpais Centre Women's Club, Lawyers' Wives of Marin, League of Women Voters, Redwood Presbyterial, Thursday Musical Club and Presidents Assembly. She served as president of the Tam Centre Club in 1960 and Lawyers' Wives last year.

OTHER OFFICERS of the Republican Women include Mesdames H. B. Hennessey, first vice president; Clifford Gerstner, second vice president; Genevieve Longley, recording secretary; Russell Bjorn, corresponding secretary and Charles J. Williams, treasurer.

SUE ANNE STICKLE, daughter of Col. and Mrs. John R. Stickle of San Rafael, has been selected to present the dental hygiene program of the University of Illinois School of Dentistry in February at a meeting in Chicago. Sue Anne, who is home for the holidays, is a student at the Illinois school.

Woodacre Postmaster Applicants Now Three

At least two women and a man have applied for the job of Woodacre postmaster and are waiting for examinations to be given in San Rafael.

The applicants include Acting Postmaster Marylu Giddings, wife of Game Warden Al Giddings; Audrey Mathis, wife of Pacific Gas & Electric Co. employee Charles W. Mathis, and Sterling Whitt, former partner in the Haney and Whitt auto glass and upholstery firm in San Rafael. One or two others in Woodacre were mentioned as possible candidates. The exact number who had applied for the $5,365-per-year job by the Dec. 10 deadline is not known.

The post became vacant in June when Mrs. Eleanor Covey moved from the area.

Notice of the examination is expected to come from the Division of Postmasters and Rural Appointments in Washington, D. C.

Dry Ice Maintains Berries During Trip

NEW YORK (AP) — The frigid temperature of dry ice, -110 degrees Fahrenheit, makes it valuable for refrigerating perishable foods but that isn't why it is used to keep California strawberries fresh on 3,000-mile trips to the East Coast, says Cardox Division of Chemstron Corp.

Chunks of the ice packed into the berry-loaded boxcars toxic carbon dioxide gas which inhibits growth of fruit destroying molds by excluding oxygen necessary for their growth. About $35 worth of dry ice protects a $5,000 shipment of strawberries.

Funds For Memorial

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate foreign relations committee approved Monday House-passed legislation for a 1.5-million-dollar U. S. contribution to establish a Corregidor-Bataan memorial park in the Philippines in memory of World War II heroes of both nations.

Healthy People Tie Up Phones

LIBERTY, Ky. (AP) — There's a telephone line within 20 feet of the French Toms home at Labascus but the former Casey County sheriff said he'd tried unsuccessfully for five years to get a phone in the house.

The line, he said, was overloaded already with party-liners.

This prompted Toms to take his complaint to the Casey County News. He wrote:

"...We are supposed to be able to get a phone as soon as somebody drops out. Or maybe a better statement would be when somebody drops dead.

"The trouble is that all my neighbors are healthy, and Mrs. Toms and I probably will die before they do. After all, I'm 69 and Mrs. Toms is 60."

Boy Heeds Talk, Saves His Dogs

PORTOLA VALLEY (AP) — Marley Hay, 13, who paid attention to a school lecture on fire prevention, saw smoke curling under a bedroom door at his home.

He carefully opened the hot door slightly to let the family dogs, Jack and Putzi, squeeze through to safety.

Then he called the fire department. Firemen said had the boy opened the door wide a smoldering mattress would have burst into flames, possibly destroying the house.

Race Issues Are Explosive Even In Fortunate Marin

In Marin County where most of our race relations are maintained at a high level, the occasional breakthrough into bad feeling or even violence is a special shock. Yet we should realize that it is impossible for Marin to enjoy a position detached and insulated from the rest of the United States where long-simmering problems of the Negro have been coming to sudden volcanic boiling-point here and there, sometimes with little warning. We shall comment tomorrow on last night's human rights meeting.

The most conspicuous of our own race bothers has been in the field of law enforcement but few of the incidents calling for sheriff's office or police activity have much basic significance. Marin City, largely Negro, has a tendency toward trouble but it stems less from race than from the presence of mostly underprivileged, often idle and understandably restless, dissatisfied youth. Solutions here take in quite a range from housing to economic opportunity.

Sometimes causes of trouble in this county require some probing. Witness the riot which broke up a teen-age dance in Santa Venetia last Saturday. There were old factors involved.

The dance promoter didn't want to allow attendance by youngsters over 19 years of age. But when about 15 Negro lads older than this showed up, the situation was awkward and as the promoter later explained "I did not want to be accused of discrimination." So he let them in to watch, and trouble began soon after.

Deputy Dennis Shine later said that this "could have been averted had the dance been limited to 18-year-olds and younger." And no doubt this would have been enforced save for the worry over possible charge of race discrimination! Sheriff Mountanos says that he has observed countywide a desire to do the right thing.

Clearly it is the fact that we already have complications enough without looking for more. A number of leading community elements ranging from religious leaders to the Mill Valley Democratic Club recognize this, and show increasing awareness that efforts for repeal of the Rumford Fair Housing Law in advance of trial can have unfortunate repercussions.

Just as Marin County supervisors recently upheld the principle of this law for the second time, so these private organizations have been taking an active stand against the repeal effort of the California Real Estate Assn. They feel, understandably, that whereas in most cases no harm can come by submitting a measure to the voters, here is an issue which can fan hatred and stir up divisive racial battle.

Undoubtedly we would find all manner of professional bigots and troublemakers flocking in. Passions would be aroused. It's a poor prospect indeed, with latent consequences beyond calculation.

On behalf of giving the law its fair test is the fact that nine states have had similar legislation in effect for at least two years, covering 50 million Americans. All these states have seen normal increase in housing values and construction; no perceivable bad effects, but many good ones.

Though Marin County brokers decided against opposition of the state group's effort it would be the part of wisdom for them to abstain from support.

Our Native Christmas Berry

Toyon is a Marin native, sometimes called Christmas holly, and is best known for its bright red berries. It is usually a shrub when growing wild on hillsides and in the chaparral, but becomes a handsome tree when cultivated.

Today the berries are admired for holiday decorations, but the Indians and Spanish Californians cooked and ate them. The leaves and bark were used to make an herb tea which the Indians thought cured stomachache and other aches and pains. And the early Americans in the state made "a pleasant cider from these berries."

The name of a suburb of Los Angeles derives from the fact that the hills of the original subdivision were covered with Toyon bushes. It is called Hollywood.

Air Force Gaily Wastes Cash Extracted From Taxpayers

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International

THE SHOCKING WASTE of public money by the national defense department military brass continues unabated and unrebuked despite claims from time to time that national defense has saved another billion here and another billion there.

If the Pentagon were a private corporation, the stockholders would have fired the management long since.

The comptroller general of the United States has been calling fouls against the Pentagon ever since the monstrous building was erected to house the Consolidated Armed Services.

He is an arm of the U. S. Congress. The office was created to audit the expenditure of funds appropriated by the Congress.

THE COMPTROLLER'S reports on national defense procurement consistently have revealed reckless waste of public money.

There are annually many such audits of national defense spending. These tales of what the generals and admirals do with the taxpayers' dollars are almost incredible. They belong in a believe-it-or-not museum.

Here is an example, dated Nov. 19, 1963.

TOWARD THE END of the 1962 fiscal year the Air Force discovered that it had a reserve of unexpended funds that had been appropriated for expenditure in fiscal 1962. The Air Force, of course, had asked for this money on grounds of urgent need.

The facts seem to be that the Air Force did not need the money at all and was somewhat embarrassed to approach the yearend with a large unexpended balance.

Compelled to spend the money or turn it back to the treasury, the Air Force spent $323,000 for new furniture it did not need.

"SUCH WASTE and extravagance illustrates the need," the comptroller's report said, "for a greater sense of individual responsibility for economy in government operations."

This outrageous waste of public funds is a pretty fair sample of the waste which has gone on year after year.

President Johnson should make the comptroller's reports required reading for all cabinet officers and agency chiefs. When the Air Force throws a lot of money out of the window, the responsible general should be chewed out in the classic military tradition.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

We Are The Poorer, Losing Chip Day

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The name of Chapin A. Day will probably never appear in textbooks or histories as a great American newspaperman. I don't imagine Chip ever thought it would, or would have cared much either way. But for those of us who were privileged to work with him, he will be remembered as great, for his career and his approach to his work epitomized just about everything that is worthy in the business.

Chip Day was a newspaperman of unswerving integrity and honesty, possessed of an iron sense of justice and fairness. He walked that treacherous tightrope between objective reporting and editorial commenting without ever making a misstep, without ever deviating from the morality of presenting fact as fact and opinion as opinion.

Chip Day was a man as well as a newspaperman, and an immensely brave man, with the shining decency and kindness that perhaps come only to one who knows he will inevitably some day fall into that painful trap that death laid for him so long ago. And a man of humor and zest, sometimes with an almost blithe view of life and death. A man you could have a drink with, or a political argument with, or a hard day's work with, and come away with a feeling of having shared a moment, or an hour, or a day, with a real comrade.

A lot of things and people are the poorer, are diminished, because Chip Day is no longer—Marin County, the Independent-Journal, the newspaper business, and all his friends and associates. But they are all richer because he did exist.

Basis For School Equalization Tax

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Reference your recent editorial on school taxes: Several years ago the I-J ran an article on the School Equalization Tax reporting that state law required it. Since then the tax has crept up to 15½ cents—about $403,000 county-wide.

We note that the Mendocino Beacon reports that "the supervisors (of Mendocino County) have decided to discontinue collecting this tax." This raises some questions.

Who sets this tax? On what basis? Where does it go? To those Marin school districts which do not keep their rates up to Marin standards? Or to Mendocino County where the overall tax rate is about one-half of Marin's?

ROBERT ERLENKOTTER
Secretary, Murray Park Improvement Assn.
Kentfield

(Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell, who thinks this is an unfair tax, offers to cite law and give full explanation to anyone not satisfied with the following boil-down: Basis of this tax is the fact that Marin County property is judged by the state to be assessed lower than statewide average. This means that in the state's view Marin County taxpayers aren't carrying their proportionate share of the tax burden, so the apportionment of school funds is reduced by the state accordingly. The county then has no option but to raise this amount and apportion it among the districts according to their assessed valuations. The job of setting the rate for this falls to Mitchell.—EDITOR)

Neatness Is Part Of Education

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Consideration for others, personal neatness, unselfishness.

Terra Linda Postman Gets High Tribute

Editor, Independent-Journal:

For his alacrity, cool thinking and participation in rendering assistance at the fire which gutted the Loberg's garage in Terra Linda Valley last Saturday, our mailman "John" deserves special commendation.

At the first shouts of "fire!" John ran a long block with his heavy mailbag bouncing over his back; grabbed the first hose a neighbor started to connect to his faucet; convinced a group of very small children to move across the street out of harm's way; and then played that hose on the burning garage while directing others who came running to assist with more garden hoses.

By the time the fire truck arrived, coming the long way around over the narrow, divided cut on Devon Drive where the residents park their cars at the curb, John was soaked to the knees. It was a very cold afternoon.

Finally, someone volunteered to relieve John who commented, "Thanks, fella!

"Sorry I can't stay, but we have a lot of mail to deliver this time of the year."

Off he went, wet trouser legs flapping, shifting his bag around to reach for a pack of mail.

Bouquets to our wonderful "John," the mailman who knows almost every little child by name—and most of the neighborhood dogs, too, which usually trot along with him for a block or two until the next contingent takes over farther up the street.

When John isn't delivering mail, you can find him gardening for the nuns at Nazareth House, or coaching a baseball game at the school grounds, or actively participating on some committee or at some function at St. Isabella's Parish, usually with a few members of his large family nearby.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

There's a darling little eight-year-old girl in Long Island who's giving her parents some sleepless nights. Her interest in life seems to be confined exclusively to one subject: clothes. Arithmetic, history, and literature she disdains. All she does is pore through the fashion magazines.

One evening, however, she came home from her progressive school and casually reported that the class had been told the facts of life in the new "The Stork Didn't Bring You" manner. "At last," thought the gratified father, "my daughter has acquired a new interest in life." Eyes alight, he asked her, "Aren't there any questions at all about the things you heard today that you want to ask Mommy and Daddy?" "One," replied the daughter promptly. "Just what does a girl wear for that?"

House Action On Aid Puts End To The Johnson Honeymoon

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's honeymoon with Congress, where he served 23 years, has come to a sickening stop.

He is faced, after less than a month in office, with the same challenge Pres. John F. Kennedy never mastered.

It's how to get this dawdling Congress, the laziest in at least a generation, to do what he asks. The House didn't give him much time to ponder his dilemma. It has just hit his foreign aid program with a meat ax,.

THIS ACTION, even the timing, was a brutal end to to the quiet spell Congress let Johnson have after Kennedy's assassination while he tried to get used to his new job.

Johnson may soon reveal whether he's going to follow the Kennedy method of soft talk with Congress, or whether he's capable of a much tougher policy that might get results where Kennedy could not.

Just last week the two houses had authorized a ceiling of $3.6 billion for foreign aid, a figure Johnson was willing to accept. Congress finally reached this action after months of wrangling within itself and with Kennedy.

THAT FIGURE was $1.3 billion less than Kennedy had originally asked and $900 million less than he had finally set as a bottom figure. But the ceiling always winds up less than a president's minimum figure anyway.

So watching Congress set a spending limit of $3.6 billion was endurable. But the ceiling is only just that.

After the ceiling Congress still has to vote the actual money to be spent. And that, in turn, usually winds up less than the ceiling.

THIS WEEK the House, acting before the Senate, was to vote on the spending money.

To try to forestall too big a cut, Johnson called in the greatest antagonist of foreign aid in the House, Rep. Otto E. Passman, Louisiana Democrat and subcommittee chairman.

Passman listened, went back to the Capitol, and his committee promptly made a joke of the Johnson-Passman conversation by deciding foreign aid should get only $2.8 billion, or $800 million less than the ceiling permitted, and $1.7 billion less than Kennedy's final minimum request.

JOHNSON RESPONDED immediately with a statement —that this kind of cut would "put our foreign policy in a straitjacket."

But Monday the House upheld Passman's committee and added an amendment to prevent this country from giving Russia credit on the wheat it wants to buy from the United States. This luckily seems offset by Senate action.

Now it's up to Johnson to perform before Senate action. He knows as he tries that the Congress and the country will be watching him. It's his first big test. Senate aid may help.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Khruschev Still Skeptical About Peace On Earth

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Soviet Premier Khrushchev still doesn't believe that the time is at hand for peace on earth, despite his announced policy of "peaceful coexistence" with the West.

The Russian Communist leader, who claims to be an apostle of peace, flatly refuses to include the words "in a peaceful world" in the preamble of a proposed disarmament treaty now under consideration by U. S.-Soviet negotiators.

In the backstage preparatory talks for the coming Geneva disarmament negotiations next month, Soviet delgates have denounced U. S. insistence on inclusion of the "in a peaceful world" phrase as an effort to "retard natural, historical processes taking place in society."

THIS ADAMANT Russian stand has not only deadlocked the preliminary negotiations but is casting a dark shadow over Premier Khrushchev's friendly gestures of cooperation with the new Johnson administration.

Already President Johnson has concluded that Khrushchev, by taking this unbudging stand, has no intentions of abandoning his policy of aiding what he calls "wars of national liberation," which the Communists are waging in Africa, Asia and Latin America.

Unless Khrushchev backs down on his stand, President Johnson plans to reject the Soviet leader's request to raise the coming Geneva talks to the level of a foreign ministers' meeting.

AS A COUNTERMOVE, the president will insist that negotiations be carried out by representatives with the rank of ambassador until the Russian leader agrees to the objective of disarmament "in a peaceful world."

According to White House aides, Khrushchev can have his foreign ministers' meeting by simply instructing his delegates to accept the last two sections in the joint working draft of the disarmament treaty preamble as proposed by the U. S.

Designated in Sections 15 and 16, these provisions declare that the goal of the signing powers would be "a free, secure and peaceful world of independent states adhering to common standards of international conduct, a world where changes take place in accordance with the principles of the United Nations charter."

THE SOVIET delegates have refused to accept this statement unless the words "peaceful world" are eliminated.

And in three other instances the Soviets have demanded that the phrase "in a peaceful world" be taken out of other sections of the preamble.

This the U. S. has refused to do.

MRS. JACQUELINE KENNEDY is being besieged with big-money offers for memoirs of her life in the White House.

Close friends say one publisher has proposed a one million dollar "package deal."

There is no indication what the former First Lady will do. Her late husband was worth an estimated 10 million dollars. It is understood that one million dollars trust funds were set up for Caroline and John on their first birthdays.

Key members of the late president's personal staff also are being propositioned with memoir offers. Foremost among them is Theodore Sorensen, his special counsel and principal speech writer. He is now doing much of this kind of work for President Johnson.

In Mrs. Kennedy's new home in swank, historic Georgetown, she will be surrounded by numerous prominent neighbors — and amazingly by what amounts to a $4.50-a-night rooming house. It is called the Colony Club, and is a very handsome building furnished with excellent Victorian-style furniture. Owned by Mrs. C. M. Hudson, it has rooms for some 20 "professional people". Some of the rooms have a fine view of Mrs. Kennedy's new garden and blue-tiled swimming pool.

Taking A Bookie Case To Trial Is Just Asking For Trouble

THERE ARE SOME court trials that are more romance than fact.

The recent bookmaking trial of William Mountanos was an excellent example. The subjects of the trial—horse race betting and Mountanos himself, brother of Marin's sheriff—far outweighed the specific charges of bookmaking.

Few cases come into court with a built-in appeal on the side of the defense, but this one did.

BOOKIES ARE part of American folklore. And the extraordinary thing about the Mountanos trial was that he admitted a previous conviction of bookmaking, discussed freely his fondness for the race track and still won the sympathy of most of the jurors.

It's not surprising that the jury in Marin Superior Court failed to come back with a verdict after deliberating more than eight hours. They were faced with the problem of squaring off admission of taking bets with their favorable impression of the genial Mountanos and his "hobby."

In a word, the jury had the task of interpreting the law: if one man accepts a bet from another as a "friend," is he really engaged in bookmaking?

SECTION 337a of the penal code includes "gratuitous" wagers as well as bets made for gain.

But it doesn't state clearly whether bets taken down to a race track and placed at the pari-mutuel windows come under the crime of bookmaking.

This question of law was complicated by the aura of bookmaking business, complete with scratch sheets, racing forms, blackboard, telephones and cigar-smoking touts, it's easy to believe he might have got a hung jury, or perhaps acquittal.

For whether he's never been to Tanforan or never read Damon Runyon, the average American thinks of bookmaking as a rather cheerful, colorful and harmless occupation, maybe just a shade illegal. Mountanos and his lawyer, Nathan Cohn, put on a good show to perpetuate this impression.

COHN EVEN delved into race track cant by disputing the allegation that "taking a bet down" means anything more than simply taking it down to wherever the horses are running.

Also in Mountanos' favor was the curious fashion in which he was brought to trial. Only one state agent allegedly placed bets with Mountanos at brother George's bar, although the hatching of the plot apparently involved nearly everybody in the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department. It was never demonstrated that anybody else showed any interest in making bets with the so-called bookmaker.

Beyond this, the undercover agent-friend turned informer is never an attractive character, however necessary such a practice may be to his job of law enforcement.

WHAT IS SURPRISING about the Mountanos trial is that it is going to be scheduled again. The district attorney may feel he has little choice in the matter, but the merits of the case are dubious.

Several local attorneys sat in at the trial from time to time and all seemed to agree it was a "cheap" case to be prosecuted.

Whatever the results of the next trial may be, it is already obvious that the grand jury chose the wrong profession when it decided to indict bookmaking.

California I.Q. Ratings High

State School Superintendent Max Rafferty, reporting on statewide student testing to the State Board of Education, emphasized they indicate that California children, while superior in achievement to national norms, should do better in view of their higher average intelligence quotient (I.Q.).

The board objected to any interpretation which would take any credit away "from the job the schools are doing."

Charts prepared by Rafferty's staff showed that California fifth graders average 106 I. Q., eighth graders 103 and eleventh graders 102. Rafferty said the national average is 100, but most testing experts say it is higher—nearly the same as the California figures.

The tests showed that California pupils rank from one month below to five months above grade placements assigned by the publishers of tests used nation wide.

WHO'S NEXT? Responding to complaints of "wasteful federal spending," the General Accounting Office said it was true that the Children's Hospital, Columbus, O., got an $18,000 grant from the Public Health Services to study why patients break appointments at pediatric clinics. The application for the grant said 25% of all appointments at the hospital's clinics are broken.

THE ALABAMA Hills, located to the west of Lone Pine in Inyo County, are reported by the National Automobile Club to be among the oldest geological formations on this continent.

Science Says Angry Man Is Dangerous At Wheel

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Only one in 10 U. S. husbands knows his wife's clothing sizes.

America scraps about as many cars each year as the rest of the world produces.

Americans also undergo nearly 16 million major surgical operations each year.

THE Soviet Union claims it has almost 17,000 women 100 years of age or older. It still remain an open question whether people live longer under communism—or it just seems longer.

Keep on your toes while doing your dishes. Scientists have found it takes less energy to do them standing up than sitting down.

You endanger your own life when you bawl out the man behind the wheel. Psychiatrists say an angry driver is sometimes more likely to have an accident than a drunken one.

"THE DIFFERENCE between getting somewhere and nowhere is the courage to make an early start. The fellow who sits still and does just what he is told will never be told to do big things" — Charles M. Schwab.

Some of the girls in South America are making life more interesting for their boy friends by wearing coffee-flavored lipstick.

Writing poetry is still one of the world's slowest ways to grow rich. The poet laureate of England gets an annual salary of $277.20 — whether he need it or not.

THE AVERAGE man's body has enough carbon for 9,000 lead pencils, enough sulphur to rid a dog of fleas, enough fat to make seven cakes of soap, and enough iron to make a single fair-sized nail.

It was Helen Rowland who observed, "It takes one woman 20 years to make a man of her son, and another woman 20 minutes to make a fool of him."

It was the Marquis of Halifax who observed, "Education is what remains when we have forgotten all that we have been taught."

Magazine Interview: Barry To Run

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.), says "I'm pretty certain that I'll make a bid for the Republican presidential nomination, but I want to make up my mind by myself, in my own time."

Goldwater indicated his position in an article in the current edition of McCall's magazine. It was written by Thomas Meehan before the Nov. 22 assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The conservative Republican said "I've never done anything to get the nomination, and yet all of a sudden everyone wants to thrust it on me. And, dog-gone it, I'm not even sure that I've got the brains to be the president of the United States."

Goldwater indicated he would try for the nomination if he could be assured he would make a respectable showing, "because even a close defeat would be a victory for conservatism, but if I thought I'd be smeared, I wouldn't accept the nomination—a landslide defeat could bury the growing conservative movement in this country."

114-2 MIL VALEYAN NAMED

Mrs. Jean A. Montgomery of Mill Valley has been named editor of FM and Cultural Guide magazine, covering Northern California.

Charles J. Cantania, proprietor of Catania Sound in San Rafael, has joined the staff of the magazine as a technical consultant and will write a column answering questions about stereo, hi-fi, tape and FM equipment.

State Fair Employment 'Guidelines' Released

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The fair employment practice commission has released a set of "guidelines" on how employers may go about obtaining information as to race of employes or job applicants which they are prohibited from obtaining through the normal job applications.

The FEPC law prohibits any pre-employment inquiries, direct or indirect, as to the applicant's race, religious creed, color, national origin or ancestry. Under regulations of the commission, the application form cannot contain any questions concerning the applicant's birthplace, birthplace of his parents, religious affiliations, complexion or skin color, citizenship in any country other than the U.S., nationality, or the address of the nearest relative or relative to be notified in case of emergency.

Photographs on application blanks are prohibited specifically except in such employment where it may be required for national security reasons.

Now the FEPC has issued guidelines on how employers may make surveys to determine the race of employes or job applicants.

"Although a job application form may not include any direct or indirect racial or ethnic identification of an individual," the FEPC said, "it is quite in the spirit of the law to conduct other types of inquiries in order to facilitate or implement a program of equal opportunity for members of all groups.

"Nothing in FEP law or policy precludes tallying, for statistical purposes, the approximate numbers of applicants or employes of each main ethnic group, or making periodic surveys of the ethnic pattern of a work force, or keeping post-hire records including racial or ethnic data, provided they are never used for discriminatory purposes," it said.

Under the direction of Governor Edmund G. Brown, a survey of 100,000 of the state's 130,000 employes was made recently to determine their ethnic makeup. Officials and supervisory personnel in state government have been instructed to make special efforts to place minority race members in certain types of positions and supervisory capacities where they now are not found frequently.

Some months ago, the state department of employment reported it was secretly recording the race of persons seeking employment, as well as those who were applying of unemployment insurance, in order to determine the areas where minority race members were experiencing particular difficulties.

At least one state official, at a meeting of the governor's council, explained how his office had to go around the civil service regulations in order to hire a Negro. Governor Brown said he considered this discrimination against the other applicants for the position or those on the civil service eligibility list.

Medical Equipment Being Sent To Chile

In Chile when a screw is used by doctors to fasten two bones together it is "polished off" and made ready for the next patient. In the United States, the screw is thrown away.

Dr. Hernan Lillo of Vina Del Mar, Chile, while on a six-month visit to California last year, was impressed by the amount of material available in hospitals which was no longer used. He mentioned this to members of the Sausalito People-to-People Committee.

The committee set about collecting two van loads of hospital equipment and surgical instruments, which will be sent via Chilean navy ship to Vina early next month.

Major contributions, according to Loren L. Jay, chairman, came from Marin General Hospital and Ross Valley Clinic. In addition, many Marin doctors collected and contributed materials and one load is being sent from a Chico hospital.

Lillo, who brushed up on his specialty as an orthopedic surgeon in San Francisco, spoke during his stay in a series of lectures given in Sausalito by the People-to-People Committee.

He said Chile has well-trained men to use such equipment as is being collected but does not have the dollars to import it. The equipment, which includes a baby scales and baby incubator, anesthetic machine, obstetrics table, bed pans and wash basins, will be sent to Lillo at Vina, where it will go to a rehabilitation center where Lillo works in Valaparaiso.

Collections have been going on for about six weeks. Jay was helping pack the materials today in the industrial building in Marinship where they are stored.

The sea going tug, Janaqueo, once owned by the U. S. Navy, will carry the equipment to Vina. It is now being made seaworthy at Treasure Island. Sausalitans recently entertained 35 crew members from the Janaqueo at their homes and on a tour of Marin.

Breast Cancer 'Very Treatable'

NEW YORK (UPI)—"... Breast cancer detected at an early stage and promptly and adequately treated is one of the most curable of human cancers," a prominent physician said today.

The statement was made by Dr. H. T. Randall, vice president and medical director at Memorial Hospital for Cancer and allied diseases. He said that "almost 80 per cent (79.6 per cent) of 2,083 women with early (stage 1) cancer of the breast treated surgically" at Memorial Hospital "are alive at the end of five years."

The survival rate for the group treated more than 10 years ago is 60 per cent, according to Randall's report.

Youth Club Party Is Slated Tomorrow

The Junior High Youth Club, sponsored by the San Rafael Parks and Recreation Commission, will have a Christmas party for seventh and eighth pupils at the San Rafael Community Center from 7:30 to 10 p.m. tomorrow.

No pupils will be admitted without either a junior high school student body card or a youth club membership card.

Not A Rose At All

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Christmas rose, which actually blooms in January or February, is really a member of the buttercup family. Native to southern Europe and Western Asia it has leathery, dark green leaves and large, saucer-shaped flowers.

Clausen Votes Against Bill On Foreign Aid

Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City), representing the First Congressional District including Marin, voted against the compromise bill on foreign aid in a recent roll call vote in Washington, D.C.

The bill, authorizing 3.6 billion dollars for foreign aid, passed the House 195-164.

Clausen also voted against a compromise bill to spend 95 million dollars in the next three years to help state and local agencies combat air pollution. This bill passed the House 273-109.

Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel (R-Anaheim) voted for a bill authorizing 1.2 billion dollars for college construction. The Senate passed the bill 54-27. No vote was recorded for Sen. Clair Engle (D-Red Bluff), who is ailing.

Sailor Promoted

Michael S. Grant, son of Mrs. Anne M. Grant of 1 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, has been promoted to Navy aviation storekeeper third class, on board the antisubmarine warfare support aircraft carrier Kearsarge, based at Long Beach.

Sausalito Lions To Continue Park Work

Sausalito Lions Club members plan to continue with landscaping and construction work at the Harrison Avenue Park in January, Richard Urbais, Lions president, said today.

He reported that club members tore down an old garage with two attached sheds on the property last Saturday. The club, with approval of the Sausalito Recreation Commission, is backing the park project financially and "physically," said Urbais.

Dance At Redwood

The Christmas dance at Redwood High School will be held Saturday in the gymnasium from 9 to midnight, sponsored by the Redwood Social Activities Committee.

50 YEARS AGO

Couple Wed On Christmas Day

Christmas will be golden wedding day for the James H. Cochrans of Tamalpais Valley.

Cochran met his bride-to-be, Maude M. Holmes, at an amusement park in Jefferson City, Mo., when Cochran worked in the Missouri Pacific Railroad roundhouse there.

They were married at noon Dec. 25, 1913, in Fulton, Mo., at the home of Mrs. Cochran's parents.

Why Christmas? Because, said Mrs. Cochran, "my dad was of the old school. He did not want us to go any place to get married. He wanted us to be married at home.

"My father was a coal miner and also a railroad worker. The mines don't work in the summer. They get behind so they go back to work in the winter. We set the time when it would be nice for him. He did everything on Christmas. Turkey, ham and goose and everything else. If he insists on doing that, why not be married on Christmas? We felt it would save money."

The Cochrans will be guests at a party Sunday at the Tamalpais Valley Community Methodist Church, of which they are members.

Mrs. Cochran, now 70, was working in Fulton as a top stitcher in a shoe factory when she met Cochran.

Cochran, 74, began his career as an apprentice boiler maker in 1906 at Sedalia, Mo. In three years he worked for "about 20 different railroads." He then got his roundhouse job at Jefferson City where he worked nine years.

Cochran worked 23 years in all for railroads, working up to boilermaker mechanic.

In 1941 he worked in the Naval Ship Yard at Charleston, S. C., as a professional chipper and, in March 1947, the Cochrans moved to Tamalpais Valley where they built their own home at 332 Shoreline Highway.

For four years he drove truck for the Tamalpais Valley Lumber Co. and the last two years before retiring he worked as janitor in San Francisco at Van Ness Medical Center Building.

The Cochrans are active in church work and Mrs. Cochran has been a member of the Rebekah Lodge for 45 years. She is a past noble grand of Rebekah Lodge 305, in Mill Valley.

They have one daughter, Mildred, now Mrs. Byron O. Boulware of 416 Pine Street, Tamalpais Valley.

Asked how to stay married 50 years, Cochran said, "I traveled the straight line."

"He has never given me any trouble so he must have kept on that straight line," said Mrs. Cochran.

CHRISTMAS IS GOLDEN—Mr. and Mrs. James H. Cochran of Tamalpais Valley will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Christmas Day. Mrs. Cochran and Cochran met in Jefferson City, Mo., where he worked in a railway roundhouse and she was top stitcher in a shoe factory.

Oswald Aid Memorial To Kennedy

By PRESTON McGRAW

FORT WORTH (UPI) — When President John F. Kennedy was assassinated, a 25-year-old housewife and mother of four wondered how she could pay tribute to the martyred chief executive.

She talked it over with her husband and neighbors.

"We knew we could send flowers to the White House," said Mrs. Shirley Williamson. "But he would never see them. Then we got to talking about what a humanitarian Mr. Kennedy was."

So they started a fund for three of the victims of the great tragedy, Marina Oswald, widow of the accused assassin, and her two babies.

"I made up my mind that I was going to donate something to Mrs. Oswald. I picked up the telephone and called the funeral home. I talked to the funeral director and found out that no one had started a fund . . . they had nothing," Mrs. Williamson said.

She called the funeral home because it had the body of Lee Harvey Oswald, killed a few hours earlier in Dallas by Jack Ruby.

Paul Groody, the funeral director, agreed to help her by telling newspapers, radio and television stations about the drive.

Money started coming in by mail almost immediately. Some of it went to Mrs. Williamson's home, some to funeral home, some to newspapers and some even was sent to Dallas police headquarters.

The fund now stands at more than $12,000.

One minister in New Jersey sent a $4,000 check to Louis Saunders, executive secretary of the Fort Worth Council of Churches, for the Oswald fund. Saunders conducted Oswald's brief funeral service.

All the money was sent to Mrs. Oswald. At first, the Secret Service had charge of it. More recently John Thorn has become Mrs. Oswald's lawyer with a power of attorney. He is in charge of the fund.

Mrs. Williamson has had no really disagreeable experiences in collecting the money. One man wrote that at first he thought she was "some kind of nut." But after thinking it over, he said, he could see her point and wanted to contribute.

"The mail has slowed down a little now," she said. "Most of it comes from men and most of it is in checks. There were not any notes at first. Now there are some and some Christmas cards for Mrs. Oswald. Contributions have come from everywhere — Hawaii to Maine and Florida to England. Everywhere but Russia."

Mrs. Williamson announced once that the drive had exceeded her expectations and she wanted to call it off. But the money keeps coming and she hands it over to the lawyer.

She personally has received more than $2,000.

Mrs. Williamson is a vivacious little woman. She has enough to keep her busy taking care of a seven-room home and her children—Shirley Ann, 9; Charles Wayne, 6; Jimmy Dale, 5, and Kenton-Douglas, 15 months old.

Her husband, 29, is a foreman in charge of a crew that lays concrete walks and roads. He approves of what his wife did.

Rafferty Girl On Honeymoon

CARMEL (UPI) — The former Cathleen Rafferty, daughter of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Maxwell Rafferty, was honeymooning in Carmel today with her husband, Melvin Faber, an English instructor at UCLA.

The couple were married in Sacramento, Monday, with a reception following in the Rafferty home there. They will live in West Los Angeles.

Cathleen is attending UCLA, where her husband is working towards his doctorate degree as well as teaching.

State Aide Resigns Job

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The resignation of John G. Sobieski as state corporations commissioner was announced yesterday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

Brown said the resignation is effective today. He said he will name a successor within a few days.

Sobieski has been corporations commissioner for five years. He said he will work as a financial executive and consultant.

Sobieski did not specify why he decided to resign.

For Rumford Bill

The Mill Valley Democratic Club opposes the aims of the groups seeking repeal of the Rumford fair housing law and urges voters, regardless of party affiliation, not to sign the initiative petition to put the law on the ballot, Robert Mullins, president, reported today.

ALMANAC

Today is Thursday, Dec. 19, the 353rd day of 1963 with 12 to follow.

The moon is approaching its first quarter. The evening stars are Saturn, Jupiter and Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1732, Benjamin Franklin began publication of his "Poor Richard's" Almanac.

In 1777 George Washington and his Continental Army troops began their winter encampment at Valley Forge, Pa.

In 1924, members of the American Federation of Labor elected William Green as their president to succeed Samuel Gompers.

In 1950, Gen. Dwight Eisenhower was appointed commander of military forces operating under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

A thought for the day—It is written in the New Testament according to the Gospel of Matthew: "Ask, and it shall be given unto you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Lightface type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

When You Have To Guess Don't Make The Choice That's Fatal

Necessity, according to Poor Alfred's Almanac, is the mother of good guesses. If you have two ways to guess, and one of them is fatal, you might as well guess the other way.

Opening lead — ♡ K

West opens the king of hearts, and you let him hold the trick. He continues with the queen of hearts, and you hold off once more since you don't know that East started with only two hearts.

West leads a third heart, and you take the ace. You see that you can take eight tricks very easily, and that the ninth trick will have to come from diamonds. In order to develop a second diamond trick you must guess the location of the king and jack of diamonds.

It's very easy to make a correct diamond play if you look at all four hands, but not so easy if you can see only the North and South hands. In this case, however, necessity comes to your aid.

You simply cannot afford to let West gain the lead because he would ruin you with the rest of the hearts. Still, you cannot keep West out if he has the king of diamonds.

Therefore necessity compels you to guess that East has the king of diamonds. This guess establishes the way you must play the hand.

After winning the third heart, run the four clubs, ending in your own hand. Then lead the ten of diamonds toward dummy.

You hold your breath as you lead the diamond because if West has the king he will step up and run the hearts. When West fails to do so, you know that East has the king, just as you hoped. It is safe to play West for the jack of diamonds by letting the ten of diamonds run as a finesse.

As it happens, East has the Jack of diamonds and wins the trick. He returns a spade to dummy's ace, and you now lead a diamond through East so that you can win a finesse with the nine of diamonds. This trick assures the game and rubber.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one spade. You have 12 points in high cards and 2 points for the excellent distribution. The total is enough for a sound opening bid.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF STRAWBERRY RECREATION DISTRICT (A Park and Recreation District)

ORDINANCE NO. 4

AN ORDINANCE OF THE STRAWBERRY RECREATION DISTRICT, MARIN COUNTY, STATE OF CALIFORNIA, PROHIBITING THE FILLING OR OBSTRUCTION OF NAVIGATIONAL EASEMENTS AND PROVIDING THAT CONSTRUCTION OF NAVIGATIONAL IMPROVEMENTS AND DREDGING SHALL BE PERMITTED ONLY ON APPROVAL OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, PROHIBITING OBSTRUCTION OR EXCAVATION OF WALKWAY EASEMENTS OR RECREATION EASEMENTS EXCEPT BY PERMIT AND UPON APPROVAL OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

WHEREAS, the Strawberry Recreation District, a Park and Recreation District, Marin County, State of California, is the owner of certain navigational easements, walkway easements and recreation easements; and

WHEREAS, it is in the best interest of the public health, safety and welfare of the residents of said District, that said navigational easements, walkway easements and recreation easements be subject to proper and adequate control and regulation by said District,

NOW, THEREFORE, THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE STRAWBERRY RECREATION DISTRICT DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. DEFINITIONS. The terms defined in this Section have the meanings set forth unless the content of this Ordinance requires a different meaning.

Sec. 1-1 "District" means Strawberry Recreation District.

Sec. 1-2 "Board" means Board of Directors of Strawberry Recreation District.

Sec. 1-3 "Secretary" means Secretary of the Board of Directors of Strawberry Recreation District.

Sec. 1-4 "Navigational easement" means any real property, including submerged and tide lands, in which the District has an easement for navigation purposes however acquired, and such portions of real property on, across, or over which District has the right to dredge or maintain a channel or canal, however such right was acquired by District.

Sec. 1-5 "Walkway easement" means any easement owned by District, however acquired, which is set aside for the use of pedestrians.

Sec. 1-6 "Recreation easement" means any easement owned by District, however acquired, set aside for use of pedestrians, equestrians and all recreational activities as same are defined in Sec. 5780.4 Public Resources Code of the State of California, except easements hereinabove defined as "Navigational easement", which said Sec. 5780.4 is incorporated herein by reference as though fully set forth.

Sec. 1-7 "Improvements" means any building, berth, anchorage place, turning basin, jetty, breakwater, bulkhead, seawall, ramp, wharf, dock, floating dock, pier, quay, landing, landing float, clip, mooring facility, piling, fence, plants, foundation, reefs, and all other structure and facility which, when attached or affixed to land, project into or actually are affixed within any navigational easement, walkway easement or recreation easement.

Sec. 1-8 "Recreation" means any activity voluntarily engaged in, which contributes to the education, entertainment or physical, mental, cultural or moral development of the individual or group attending, observing or participating therein and includes any activity in the fields of music, drama, art, handicraft, science, literature, nature contacting, aquatic sports, athletic or any of them, and informal play incorporating any such activity.

SECTION 2. NAVIGATIONAL EASEMENTS.

Sec. 2-1 It shall be unlawful for any person to fill, or permit to be filled, to dump or to place, or to permit to be dumped or to be placed, deposited, maintained or accumulated in any navigational easement owned by District any debris, dirt, fill, rocks, pilings, waste, spoils, garbage, rubbish, trash, brush, timber or other commodity whatsoever which obstructs, prevents or tends to obstruct or prevent the use of such navigational easement for navigation purposes for boats, water craft or water recreational activities of all types.

Sec. 2-2 It shall be unlawful for any person to place any improvement over across any navigational easement, nor shall any person dredge over part of any navigational easement except in compliance with permit provisions as herein provided.

SECTION 3. WALKWAY EASEMENTS AND RECREATION EASEMENTS.

Sec. 3-1 It shall be unlawful for any person to obstruct or in any manner interfere with, in whole or in part, any walkway easement or recreation easement.

Sec. 3-2 It shall be unlawful to place any improvements on or across any walkway easement or recreation easement, or to excavate on or under any walkway easement or recreation easement, except in compliance with the permit provisions as hereinafter provided.

SECTION 4. PERMITS

Sec. 4-1 Any person proposing to construct or place any improvements on, over, or across any navigational easement, walkway easement or recreation easement; or any person proposing to dredge any part or all of any navigational easement; or any person proposing to excavate in or under any walkway easement or recreation easement shall submit a written application together with development plan, in duplicate, setting forth sufficient details, specifications and information to enable the Board to determine whether or not such improvements, dredging or excavation will interfere with, impair or destroy the use in whole or in part of any navigational easement, walkway easement, or recreation easement, in relation to which said permit is sought.

Sec. 4-1 (a) The form of such application blank and the information required in such development plan shall be designated by the Board by resolution from time to time.

Sec. 4-1 (b) The applicant shall pay the fees hereinbelow provided at the time of filing his application.

Sec. 4-1 (c) The application, together with development plans, specifications and fees shall be submitted to the Secretary.

Sec. 4-1 (d) The Board shall hold a public hearing on the application not later than thirty (30) days from filing said application. The Board may continue such public hearing from time to time but in no event longer than ninety (90) days from date of first public hearing unless the applicant shall, prior to the expiration of said time period, consent in writing to a further definite extension of time. If the Board fails to act within the time limits set forth hereinabove or within such extension as may be consented to by applicant, the application shall be deemed approved.

Sec. 4-1 (e) If the Board approves or conditionally approves such application, it shall cause Secretary to endorse the Board's action on the original application and file same with the permanent records of the District. The Secretary shall advise the applicant in writing of the approval, of such condition, or conditions, as the Board shall impose on such approval, by endorsing the Board's action on the duplicate application and returning same to applicant.

Sec. 4-1 (f) In the event the Board disapproves an application, it shall direct the Secretary to advise the applicant, in writing, of its action. The Secretary shall endorse the Board's action on the original copy of the application and file same with the permanent records of the District. The Secretary shall endorse the reasons for denial on the duplicate of the application and return same to applicant.

Sec. 4-2 The application shall be accompanied by an application fee of Ten Dollars ($10) plus the amount determined by District as necessary to recompense District for the actual cost of examination of application and inspections as may be necessary. No permit shall be issued unless all fees herein provided for have been paid in advance. All permits shall expire six (6) months after date of issuance, unless otherwise indicated on the permit.

Sec. 4-3 Where circumstances warrant, the applicant may be, at the option of the District, required to post a surety bond, or cash in sufficient money to guarantee costs of inspection and restoration of District's property which may be damaged in the course of the work. In case of failure of Applicant to do required cleanup and repair within a reasonable time after notification to do so by the District, the District may have such work done by an independent contractor and deduct the cost thereof from the bond before refunding the balance thereof.

Sec. 4-4 Work on any project for which a permit has been issued may not commence after the expiration of such permit. Permits under which substantial work has been done on the project for which such permit has been issued may be renewed by the Board upon such terms and conditions as the Board may deem justified in the interest of public health, safety and welfare, and for such periods of time as the Board may deem justified.

Sec. 4-5 The issuance of a permit, or qualified permit, by the Board shall not relieve the applicant of the obligation to comply with the regulations of Federal, State or other authorities having jurisdiction over the subject matter. The permit shall indicate only that the applicant has complied with the requirements of District.

SECTION 5. SEVERABILITY

If any section, sentence, clause or phrase of this ordinance is for any reason held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance. The Board of Directors of the District hereby declares that it would have passed this ordinance, and each section, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, sentences or clauses or phrases be declared invalid.

SECTION 6. EFFECTIVE DATE

This ordinance shall take effect and be in full force and effect thirty (30) days after the date of passage and approval, and shall be published at least once in the Independent Journal, a newspaper published in the County of Marin and having the largest circulation within the boundaries of the District, said publication to be made before the expiration of fifteen (15) days after its passage, with the names of the members voting for and against the same.

The Secretary shall post this Ordinance in three (3) public places in the District for a period of two (2) weeks following the enactment thereof.

Passed and adopted by the Board of Directors of the Strawberry Recreation District, County of Marin, State of California, on the 11th day of December, 1963 by the following vote, to-wit:

AYES: A. R. Senter, C. G. Bush, P. M. Gowen, L. J. Smith

Liquor Violation Case Gets Marin Hearing

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Department conducted a hearing on an alleged liquor violation at the Marin Labor Council Building in San Rafael yesterday and canceled two other scheduled hearings.

Ivores Dains, hearing officer, heard testimony on the charge against Roma F. Weaver, proprietor of Roma's Market, Forest Knolls, for allegedly selling liquor to a minor.

Two hearings scheduled for yesterday afternoon were canceled and will be re-set for a later date.

Robert P. Joy and H. Wayne Jorgenson face charges of failing to surrender their liquor license upon the closing of their business, Club Drake at 1625 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax.

Sigfried K. Herzog Jr., proprietor of Marin Drive-In Liquors, 1556 Fourth Street, San Rafael, faces charges of selling to a minor.

There will be an ABC hearing at the Labor Council Building next Thursday at 10 a.m. on the charge that Irving Litchfield, proprietor of Bermuda Palms, 737 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, failed to operate a bona fide restaurant.

Book Store Planning Christmas Open House

Maggie Grant will hold a Christmas open house at her book store in the Mill Valley Greyhound Bus Depot tomorrow, with Belvedere author Sterling Hayden and William Hogan, San Francisco Chronicle book editor, as special guests.

Hayden and Hogan will be at the depot from 10 a.m. to noon and 2 to 6 p.m. Hayden will autograph copies of his book, "Wanderer." Homemade pastries and coffee will be served.

Commission Jobs Filled In Novato

The Novato City Council Tuesday night filled all the vacancies on the various commissions by reappointment except for one replacement.

William J. Keener of 562 Wilson Avenue was appointed to replace Robert McKeay on the parks and recreation commission. McKeay had written that he did not wish reappointment when his term expires on Dec. 31.

Gordon Tandy was reappointed to the same commission. Richard Alcorn was reappointed to the planning commission. Frank Baccaglio was named to succeed himself on the Marin Mosquito Abatement District board.
